Well Out of It—If We Are—

Talks have been held between the United States, Great Britain and France relative to the problem of the Middle East.

They were held at a very low echelon.

And since they ended there has been silence.

Perhaps that is just as well. They were foredoomed to failure and misunderstanding. And if they have, indeed, been held and forgotten, it is well and good and must be put down as a triumph.

Decision to hold this meeting came out of the recent Eden-Dulles-Eisenhower "talks" in Washington.

When it was made the more knowing diplomats shivered . . . with the exception of the Russians. They must have smiled. Not, perhaps, with the expression of the cat which has had the cream. But of one which approaches a dish of it.

The agreement had a fatal flaw.

The flaw is not so much France herself, but a fiction about her. The fiction is that France is a great power and that she can govern herself.

Indeed, one of the great ironies of our time, and one by no means lost on the Arab nationalists, is the spectacle of France, unable to govern herself, insisting to her North African colonies they themselves are not yet ready for self-government.

The fact is they are not. But France, where government has become almost a comedy, cannot insist they must learn how to govern from her.

Algeria

The new government, so painstakingly created in Paris, will likely be torn down in Africa. Certainly, the French colonials cannot, as a mob, say to the Arabs that they are but natives and not ready to govern.

At any rate, both the United States and the British now know that when France joined them to talk about "what to do" in North Africa and the Middle East, that it was shouting into the wind.

Our diplomats now know that it will be very easy to make commitments there, with France, which will drag us into a war France can't fight.

The Communists already are exploiting it.

With typical double-dealing they are financing the Arab nationalists and at the same time trying to drive a wedge between Great Britain and the United States.

One of the monitors of Soviet broadcasts, for example, recently picked up an English program from Moscow. A Professor Galkin was speaking. In it he said, in a honeyed, persuasive voice:

Broadcast

"No one exported the idea of revolution or freedom and independence to North America. It was Thomas Jefferson, and not any Communist. I think present-day Americans, the descendants of Jefferson and Washington, will understand the desire of Asian and African peoples to have their 1776 too."

This was in English for English consumption.

When the Soviets are talking to Asians and Africans they denounce the descendants of Jefferson and Washington as warmongers and imperialists who seek to enslave.

The great swamp through which we have struggled, and into which we would have fallen again with high level French talks, is that the Asian and African peoples too often see us in our present predicament. They are rather sick of communism and of democracy, chiefly because they do not want, in their new nationalistic pride, to borrow from Europe or America. They seek an ideology of their own. They want something to express in tangible form their own consciousness of independence.

Not wishing to borrow they look to their own past. This explains their sometimes unreasonable sensitiveness about their old culture traditions and history. It is a search for a new identity.

France, which is not yet able to govern herself, is going to find it difficult to convince her Arab colonies . . . especially when her own colonials are acting so recklessly, that they should follow her. We are lucky to be out of it—if we are.

12 Nations Seek World Atom Panel

Soviets in Group Mulling Ike Plan

By ANTHONY LEVIERO
(Copyright 1956 by The New York Times Co.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24 — A 12-nation committee, including the Soviet Union, will begin work here Monday on a draft statute to establish an international agency for the peaceful use of atomic energy.

President Eisenhower proposed the agency before the United Nations Dec. 8, 1953.

MODERATE HOPES

Officials were moderately optimistic that the negotiating committee would succeed. If this proves correct, the enabling statute will be submitted to a general conference of the 84 nations that are associated with the United Nations.

If the initial conference should fail to reach complete agreement, the 12-member group will seek harmony on as many articles as possible. There are 23 articles in the proposed statute.

It was expected that the international agency plan would be scrutinized with renewed interest in the light of President Eisenhower's proposal on Washington's birthday to sell or lease a billion dollars worth of Uranium 235 for peaceful production of atomic power. Half of this fissionable material would be allotted abroad over a period of years and the other half to domestic users.

There was no direct connection between the two proposals, as they are now conceived. However, it was understood that if the agency was established with an effective inspection system and stringent safeguards against the military use of the atomic fuel, the United States would be willing to conduct the uranium program through the agency.

URANIUM SHARED

Meanwhile the United States will continue to make bilateral agreements with friendly countries for the leasing of fissionable material. Twenty-five such agreements have been made but they are for small research and medical projects.

While President Eisenhower specified that none of the uranium 235 should go to the Soviet bloc countries, it was taken for granted in government quarters that this prohibition would be dropped if the Communist countries participated in the agency.

Pope Pleads Guilty in Car Theft Cases

Doxie Clinton Pope, described by government officials as a ringleader in one of the biggest auto theft rings ever broken in Atlanta, pleaded guilty in federal court here Friday to two counts of interstate transportation of stolen motor vehicles.

Four other persons appearing with Pope in response to a 41-page federal grand jury indictment entered pleas of not guilty.

Pope, under questioning by Asst. U.S. Atty. J. Robert Sparks, entered his pleas in connection with two acts picked at random from "some 200 overt acts" charged in the indictment.

Judge Frank A. Hooper set March 23 as the date for sentencing the 39-year-old Austell man.

Entering "not guilty" pleas were Martha H. Williams, a tall, shapely burnette; E. C. Livingston, Robert R. Little, James R. Crawford and Ralph C. Staffins.

Ike Ready for Flight To D.C.; 'Yes' Feb. 29?

By ALBERT RILEY
Constitution Staff Writer

THOMASVILLE, Feb. 24—President Eisenhower was pronounced "in very good shape" Friday as he neared the end of a 10-day vacation in which he has put his physical stamina to rugged tests.

The chief executive is scheduled to fly North Saturday—back to Washington and an expected early announcement of his big "second-term" decision.

On his last day of hunting here—five months to the day from his Sept. 24 heart attack—Eisenhower had a good day afield. He bagged the legal limit of 12 quail on a foray near the Florida line.

Newsmen, who watched Ike start out on his seventh day of hunting Friday and talked to his physician, became more convinced than ever that the President will run for reelection.

The big announcement is expected next Wednesday at the President's regular news conference at the White House.

With Eisenhower refreshed and relaxed after more than a week of hunting and golfing under the warm sun of the south Georgia piney woods country, his personal physician placed the "very fine shape" stamp of approval on the President's condition.

Maj. Gen. Howard Snyder added that Ike "hasn't shown any signs of physical fatigue."

However, the doctor, who has been the President's constant companion, would give no hint as to whether Ike has decided to run again.

Boycotters Hoof It to Ala. Court

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Feb. 24 (AP)—Shunning rides, Negroes in uncounted numbers walked the streets of Montgomery today to demonstrate their continued protest against segregation on city buses.

They trudged to work through a drizzling rain in response to an appeal from their leaders for a mass 24-hour pilgrimage on foot to prove their willingness to walk if necessary to carry on their 11-week-old bus boycott. They also walked home.

WALK TO COURT

Ninety of them walked to the courthouse for arraignment on antiboycott indictments returned by a grand jury Tuesday. They all pleaded innocent and their trials were set to start March 19.

Defense attorneys at the same time filed demurrers contesting the indictments which charged violation of Alabama's law against "illegal" boycotting. Maximum penalty under the law is six months in jail and a $1,000 fine.

BACK BI-RACE BOARD

Meanwhile, at the Alabama Capitol, Gov. James E. Folsom won support from a group of newspaper editors and publishers and radio and television broadcasters for a proposed biracial commission to settle differences between the white and Negro races.

Meanwhile, in New York, Rep. Adam Clayton Powell (Dem) at an emergency meeting of Negro church leaders called for a one-hour mass work stoppage of every Negro in the nation March 28 in support of the Montgomery boycott.

Reds Claim Single Boss Era Ended

Malenkov Bureau Performance Hit

MOSCOW, Feb. 24 (AP)—The 20th Congress of the Communist party today unanimously warned against any attempt to restore one-man rule in the Soviet Union.

It publicly flashed a big red light against any person in the party who might try to take over Stalin's role.

Party boss N. S. Khrushchev and all other top leaders have told the Congress they are devoted to the principle of collective rule. They have disavowed any intention to return to the one-man system.

PARTY CONGRESS WARNS

"The Congress," said a resolution adopted unanimously, "Charges the Central Committee not to relax its struggle against a revival of the cult of the one man, to remember that the genuine creator of a new life are the masses led by the Communist party."

The same resolution, drawn up by a committee headed by Khrushchev, declared the Central Committee was "absolutely right" in coming out against the cult of one person.

The Congress also endorsed, with unspecified reservations, Premier N. A. Bulganin's proposals for a new five-year plan.

BULGANIN HEADS PANEL

A committee headed by Bulganin himself was named to make amendments and suggestions for the plan, which is aimed at pushing the Soviet Union's production ahead of that of the United States.

Delegates adopted a detailed resolution formally approving Khrushchev's keynote report to the Congress as party doctrine here and abroad. It was in this speech that Khrushchev enunciated the collective leadership principle.

Meanwhile, former Premier Georgi M. Malenkov's Ministry of Electric Power Stations was sharply criticized by the boss of Soviet state planning for delays in putting new equipment into operation.

"The Ministry of Electric Power Stations is proscrastinating too much with putting into operation new equipment and electric stations," Deputy Prime Minister

New Krull Death Date Is March 23

U.S. District Judge Frank A. Hooper imposed the death penalty here Friday on two McKees Rock, Pa., brothers convicted Feb. 4 of raping a 53-year-old Chattanooga woman.

George Krull, 34, and Michael Krull, 31, were sentenced to die between 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. March 23 in Georgia's Reidsville prison electric chair despite last-minute defense pleas for life imprisonment.

The Krulls were given the extreme penalty on two rape counts each, life terms on a kidnaping charge and five-year terms for interstate transportation of an automobile. With the exception of the auto theft sentence which by law must be set by the judge, these were the recommendations of the jury.

Shortly after the sentences were pronounced, Oscar Smith and Clynt Morgan, attorneys for George Krull, filed an appeal to the U.S. Circuit Court at New Orleans. Bobby Lee Cook and J. L. Kilpatrick, counsel for Michael Krull, filed notice they also will appeal.

The handcuffed and waist-chained brothers appeared outwardly impassive during sentencing.

The offenses for which they were convicted and sentenced occurred April 14, 1955.

1.7 Million Salk Doses Released

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24 (AP)—The Public Health Service today released 1,718,775 doses of Salk polio vaccine.

The total included 967,500 doses—or cubic centimeters—made by Parke Davis & Co., Detroit, and 751,275 doses made by Wyeth Laboratories, Marietta, Pa. The Parke Davis batch was the first of that company's product to be released since standards were revised last May.

The vaccine goes to the states and territories for use under the voluntary distribution system except for 5,751 doses set aside for vaccination of American citizens abroad.

Premiere Georgia-Filmed 'Chase' Showing Set for Atlanta June 8

By PAUL JONES

Walt Disney will premiere his "Great Locomotive Chase" here June 8.

The epic screen drama, based on an incident in the War Between the States and filmed in Georgia's mountains last summer, will open at Loew's Grand amid all the glamor and glitter Atlanta can muster.

Members of the Walt Disney organization met here Friday with officials of the Georgia Federation of Women's Club and Young Matrons' Circle of Tallulah Falls School to announce that Mr. and Mrs. Disney, Fess Parker, Jeffrey Hunter, Jeff York and other Hollywood celebrities would attend the festive premiere and attendant social affairs.

Proceeds from the premiere will be used principally to construct a dormitory at the Tallulah Falls School.

The premiere activities will begin June 7 when the stars and Disneys arrive from Hollywood.

A major feature of the premiere activity will be a Disneyland Ball to be staged Thursday, June 7. Many of those attending the ball will dress in costumes designed in the fashion of a Disney screen character. Others will carry or wear accessories resembling a Disney character, such as a Davey Crockett hat, a Mickey Mouse purse or a Snow White doll. The ball will be a "dress occasion" and proceeds from this affair also will go to the Tallulah Falls School.

The premiere at Loew's Grand on Friday night will be conducted with all the color and gaiety that has characterized other Hollywood openings here.

Prices of tickets to the premiere and ball have not been established, but Mrs. Kenneth Gurley, president of the Young Matrons Circle and Mrs. Henry W. Moore, president of the federation, said no tickets will be sold. They will be given to those making contributions to the school fund.

"The Great Locomotive Chase" was filmed near Clayton. The picture is based on an incident which saw a group of Union spies headed by James J. Andrews attempt to disrupt Confederate communications lines between Atlanta and Chattanooga during the war between the States.

Senate 2-Party Chiefs Ask Election Reform In Time for Campaign

Would Place Contributions In Full View

By RUSSELL BAKER
(Copyright 1956 by The New York Times Co.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24—The Senate leaders of both parties came out today for limited reform of the election laws before the 1956 campaign.

Lyndon C. Johnson of Texas, Democratic leader, said "realistic" bipartisanship could guarantee early passage of a bill that would put all campaign contributions "in a goldfish bowl" for public scrutiny.

Republican leader Knowland of California endorsed Johnson's proposal in principle and agreed that some reform should be enacted before the 1956 elections.

SENATE BLOC

The two men represent a powerful coalition of Senate forces that normally would insure passage of any measure. Their decision to combine strength on this issue stems from the furore over lobbying and campaign contributions connected with passage of the Natural Gas Bill.

In vetoing the gas bill, President Eisenhower assailed "arrogant" lobbying practices by some backers. Behind this complaint was the gas lobby's use of campaign contributions to senators voting on the measure.

Johnson had three proposals for tightening up existing law. They were:

1. To encourage more small contributions by allowing tax deductions on gifts of up to $100 per person.

TV TIME

2. To permit television and radio networks to give free and equal time to major parties, without being bound to accommodate fringe parties in the same way.

3. To require "stringent reporting" of all contributions to a general-election campaign and to im-

Dulles Contends West Stouter Than Year Ago

By WILLIAM S. WHITE
(Copyright 1956 by The New York Times Co.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24—Secretary of State Dulles today asserted that the free world was stronger than a year ago and that the Russians actually were having to revise and replace a bankrupt high strategy toward the world.

Appearing before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee amidst the heaviest Democratic criticism of the administration's conduct of affairs in the Near East and elsewhere, Dulles conceded not an inch.

On the contrary, he went on the offensive as a strongly pro-Dulles crowd in the great marble hearing room three times heavliy applauded him.

DEFENDS TANK DEAL

He offered no apology for the mixup of last weekend in which the State Department first cleared, then halted and then recleared for shipment 18 tanks to Saudi Arabia.

He assigned the basic responsibility for this decision to Under Secretary of State Herbert Hoover Jr.—a responsibility Hoover unhesitantly and without qualification accepted.

Dulles' appearance was his first before the committee since the "brink of war" statements attributed to him and since the arrival of a state of high tension in the Near East between Israel and the Arab states.

What he offered was not a defense of the administration's foreign policies but rather an aggressive summary of these as policies that had greatly improved the position of the free world.

These were among his main disclosures, contentions and points in a session of nearly four hours:

1. He said the United States would not "exclude the possibility" of further arms sales in the Near East, to Israel as well as to the Arabs.

STATES ISRAELI HOPE

He made it plain, however, that there was no foreseeable intention of supplying weapons to the Israeli, who have been protesting U. S. assistance to the Arabs in Saudi Arabia.

Even with the most ample of arms supplies, Dulles declared in effect, Israel could not in any case expect to reach any military balance with the more populous Arab states about her.

Israel's hope, he said in sub-

9 Car Lootings In Day Despite Seizure of 30

Atlanta's hub cap thieves were still active Friday despite a week of intensive police investigation.

Lt. I. A. Thomas of the detective larceny squad said nine cases of car stripping were reported during the day.

The reports were spread over all the city, Thomas said.

A total of 30 youths, most of them juveniles, were rounded up during the week on charges of stripping off automobile accessories.

Several parents brought in youngsters after the roundup began. A large quantity of hub caps, fender skirts and outside mirrors were returned to owners.

When the investigation is completed Thomas said charges will be brought against persons who purchased the hub caps.

Airing of Plane Firm's Pay to Generals Urged

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24 (AP)—Rep. Hebert (D-La) demanded today that salaries paid retired generals and admirals by Fairchild Engine & Airplane Corp. be "brought into the open."

Hebert is chairman of a House armed services subcommittee which is investigating charges that aircraft manufacturers have made excessive profits on military plane contracts. He made the statement during questioning of Fairchild Vice President Arthur F. Flood.

The subcommittee brought out that six former high-ranking officers were employed by Fairchild last year. They included Gen. Jacob L. Devers, the late Adm. John H. Towers, Adm. Robert B. Carney, Brig. Gens. William W. Welsh and James F. Early and Maj. Gen. Robert L. Walsh.

The company, which also employed three ex-lieutenant colonels, has plants at Hagerstown, Md., St. Augustine, Fla., and Long Island, N. Y. It makes assault transports, airframes for B52's, jet engines and guided missiles.

Hebert said the generals' salaries were charged to Fairchild's "overhead" which in turn was spread out through various government contracts. But he protested that he could find nothing specific the ex-officers did on some contracts.

Flood said the men served in an advisory capacity. But he agreed that it was difficult in some cases to detail exactly what the generals did under various contracts. He said, however, that their technical experience was valuable to the firm.

Hebert said Gen. Welsh received $23,500 last year as an Air Force expert on training and Gen. Walsh was paid $13,500 as an expert on "export matter."

Icy Landslide Perils Italian City of 18,000

110 Homes Wrecked By Advancing Avalanche

LONDON, Feb. 24 (AP)—A gigantic landslide edged toward an Italian city of 18,000 persons today, wrecking 110 homes and threatening the entire city.

The landslide at Vasto, 110 miles east of Rome, followed a slight letup in Europe's 25-day-old cold wave, which also brought new snowslides, threatening floods and skyrocketing food prices.

An American ice show was "iced out" in Denmark and an Olympic ski champion skidded his car into a bridge in Austria. Four more deaths were reported in other areas to raise the cold wave death toll to 859.

FROZEN ON ROADS

Two elderly men were found frozen on roads in Bavaria, a Finnish truck driver drowned when his truck fell through the ice of a lake, and a Belgian was crushed under his truck when it skidded on an icy road.

At Vasto, a wall of earth and stone, loosened by melting snow, slowly descended on the town and crumbled stone-and-brick houses.

There were no casualties, but the tracks of the Foggia-Bologna Railroad line slipped two feet toward the sea, and authorities feared for the safety of the entire city.

Pope Pius XII rushed food and clothing to Vasto's homeless families, and the Italian government appropriated $208,000 for emergency housing and work to halt the landslide before it can create a major disaster.

45 EARTH TREMORS

Forty-five earth tremors were felt in the cathedral town of Siena in Tuscany, but no serious damage was reported.

The government also acted in France, where shortages created by the cold wave sent food prices skyrocketing out of control.

French Premier Guy Mollet called in his main economic ministers to take emergency measures to stop the spiraling prices. Their first step was to place imported butter on the market, open ports to all necessary food imports, and authorize a bill to suspend temporarily all sales and production taxes on food products.

ICE TROUPE BLOCKED

Pack ice in the great belt separating Denmark's islands prevented the U.S. "Holiday on Ice" troupe from leaving Copenhagen, throwing the show far behind schedule.

Ski champion Toni Sailer, a triple winner in the recent winter Olympic games, smacked his car into a bridge abutment after skidding on an icy road in Salzburg. Sailer was unharmed.

Berlin had the coldest Feb. 24 in the past 125 years, but in many other parts of Europe the cold wave appeared to be letting up.

Farm Prices Pull Down Living Costs

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24 (AP)—The government today announced a slight January decline in the nation's living costs. It was enough to mean a penny-an-hour pay cut for a million workers.

These workers, mainly in the auto and farm equipment manufacturing industries but also including some in aircraft production, have their wage rates partly geared by union contract to changes in the government index.

LIVING COSTS

Ewan Clague, labor statistics commissioner, said living costs for February could be expected to change very little, and perhaps will be down slightly.

General Motors Corp. announced that on the basis of the January decline wages of its more than half-million workers would be cut one cent an hour beginning with the first pay period after March 1.

Lower prices in grocery stores, caused by the continuing decline in farm prices, and home furnishing bargains in January sales were chiefly responsible for the living cost decline.

INDEX DIPS

The Labor Department's index dipped one-tenth of 1 per cent to 114.6 per cent of the 1947-49 base period. This is the lowest level since last August, a bit higher than a year ago, but less than one per cent below the October, 1953, living cost peak.

Lower prices were reported in January for pork, beef, eggs, milk, fats and oils, and coffee. The food decline was countered somewhat by seasonally higher prices for vegetables.

about that," Gen. Snyder said in answer to reporters' queries.

The doctor did intimate, however, that Eisenhower, because he has learned to conserve his strength, might be "safer" from another heart attack "than he was before."

There also seemed to be a suggestion in Gen. Snyder's remark that it might be safer to have a man in the White House who has had a heart attack and is taking care of himself than someone who might be ripe for such a seizure and not know it.

But the doctor quickly warned there is no guarantee that Eisenhower might not be stricken again.

"A physical accident like a heart attack can come out of nowhere," the physician said. "He (Ike) has no guarantee in trying this thing again that it will not happen again.

"All he can do is trust in God. It would be the same for any new man. Even many young men die—have a heart attack, so it may be safer than he was before."

The President and Mrs. Eisenhower will leave Milestone Plantation with their hosts, Treasury Secretary and Mrs. George M. Humphrey, and other members of the party early Saturday.

They will drive to Spence Air Force near Moultrie and are expected to take off for Washington at about 11 a.m. aboard the Columbine III.

Normally the President winds up a Georgia vacation on Sunday, but he is leaving on Saturday this time to attend a birthday party for Secretary of State Dulles, who will be 68 years old.

Newsmen learned Friday just how rapidly the President has been stepping up his physical activity here. In addition to playing 18 holes of golf Thursday morning and going turkey hunting for two hours that afternoon, Ike stayed up until 12:30 that night playing bridge, and then was up in time for an 8 a.m. breakfast and another quail hunt Friday.

Hunted Red To Give Up, Letter Says

NEW YORK, Feb. 24 (UP)—A mysterious letter to the press announced today that a fugitive member of the American Communist Party's top-ranking "politburo" would surrender Monday after dodging federal agents for five years.

The neatly-typed statement, sent by special delivery to newspaper wire services in New York, said Gilbert Green, 49, Illinois state Communist Party chairman, would present himself at the same Federal Courthouse in New York at which he was convicted of conspiring to promote an American revolution.

'NEW WIND'

The letter said Green had decided to surrender because "new political winds" were blowing in the United States which indicated "the rights of Communists will be restored" before long.

The statement was signed "Gil Green," apparently in the same hand as Green's known signature on an FBI "wanted" bulletin.

SOUNDS AUTHENTIC

Communist sources said the document "sounds authentic." They pointed out that other Communist fugitives have used the same method to announce their surrender.

The FBI, which has sought Green ruitlessly throughout the nation since he failed to report to start a prison term in 1951, had no official comment on the development.

The letter, headed "Statement of Gil Green, Communist Leader," was postmarked at the New York General Post Office at 11:30 o'clock p.m. It bore no return address.

CHICAGO MAILMAN

Green, a former Chicago postman who was fired for absenteeism, was one of 11 members of the U. S. Communist Party's "politburo" who were convicted under the Smith Act after a long trial in 1949 of conspiracy to teach and advocate the violent overthrow of the U.S. government. He was free in bond pending appeals to higher courts and did not surrender when his conviction was affirmed.

The trial was the first in a series of Smith Act cases that resulted in nearly 100 U. S. Communist officials being convicted.

Green and three others had vanished by July, 1951, when they were ordered to begin serving their sentences which ranged up to five years. Two have been captured. If Green surrenders as announced only Henry Winston, a Negro, will remain a fugitive.

Broken Axle Is Blamed In Rail Crash Killing 5

ODENTON, Md., Feb. 24 (AP)—The Pennsylvania Railroad said today an axle which unaccountably broke caused the derailment of the Embassy passenger train in which five persons were killed and more than 100 injured.

The 14-car train was speeding at 80 miles per hour over the flatlands between Baltimore and Washington when the cash happened yesterday. Nine cars were derailed. Three of them overturned.

J. A. Schwab, regional manager for Pennsylvania Railroad, said normal lubricating procedures had been followed and no defect in the bearing had been found.

The axle broke on the sixth car behind the electric engine, causing it to derail partially as did the seventh and eighth cars. The last six broke completely free of the tracks, two overturning on top of the embankment and three plunging down the 15-foot slope on their sides.

"The roller bearing journal where the axle broke was inspected for oil level and lubrication in Sunnyside Yard, New York, on Feb. 19, just four days before the accident, and was checked in normal inspection in Washington before the train left last evening," Schwab said.

". . . Our present conclusion is that the accident resulted from a fracture in the axle itself, which type of failure is extremely uncommon," he added.

Four of the injured were still on the critical list tonight.

INVESTIGATION

Railroad officials joined investigators from the Maryland Public Service Commission and the Interstate Commerce Commission in the search for the cause.

The train was bound from Washington to New York. It cracked up about 5:22 p.m. shortly after passing the Odenton tower.

Most of the passengers were from the New York-New Jersey and Baltimore-Washington areas.

The dead were Alexander Nero, 22, Trenton, N.J.; Thomas Reed Johnson, 35, and Alfred B. Haupt, both of Baltimore; Sydney Jackson, 50, New York City, and Edward Q. Holloway, 63, Wilmington, Del. Jackson was a train porter and Holloway a flagman.

ON CRITICAL LIST

On the critical list were Michael Buddy, Trenton, N.J.; Jerry Tucillo, Trenton, N.J.; Elliott Sturgis, Gibson Island, Md., all at Ft. Meade Army Hospital, and Niles M. Markusson, 74, of Jersey City, N.J., at Anne Arundel General Hospital, Annapolis, Md.

Ft. Meade officials said Katherine Osusky, Union City, N.J., reported critical last night, was not on the list of those in critical condition today.

Many of the approximately 60 persons hospitalized overnight were discharged today.

Party Heads Ask Election Reform Now

pose "realistic limits" on campaign spending.

Significantly missing from his proposal was a provision applying the same laws to primary campaigns. In about 20 states, where one party is overwhelmingly dominant, most political spending is for primary elections in which victory means election.

SKETCHY COVERAGE

Thus, under his proposal, most of the Democratic South and the predominantly Republican New England and Midwestern states would be covered only sketchily.

The important goal, Johnson said, was to get "a good strong election bill that can give us honest elections" and to get it this year.

Knowland agreed that the present law needed changing before the presidential election.

Johnson had only a general outline of his proposal today. None of the details have been worked out. There is still, for example, no informed guess on what "realistic limits" for spending in each state might be.

ELECTORATE STUDIED

It is understood, however, that these limits probably would be based on the size of each state's electorate.

The leaders' sudden proposal to write a new law came just one day after a select eight-man Senate committee had been named to investigate the whole broad field of campaign spending and lobbying pressures.

The special committee is not required to report until after the elections. Johnson said his proposal was not designed to cut the ground out from under the select committee. The need, he said, was for action before the election.

ENDORSE SCRUTINY

Other senators who strongly endorse the special investigation agreed that the Johnson plan for early action on electoral reform was sound because it represented an attempt to "strike while the iron is hot."

Some reform this year when the issue is ripe would be preferable to waiting for grander changes next year when all might fail because of public apathy, one influential Democrat argued.

17 Flying Missionaries Safe in Cuba

HAVANA, Feb. 24 (UP)—Seventeen Tennessee missionaries on a goodwill tour of the Caribbean were found safe today after being reported missing in six small planes.

The group, members of the Church of Prophecy, of Cleveland, Tenn., were found near the small town of Niquero, in Oriente Province.

They were the second group of "missing" American air travelers found in Cuba in the past 36 hours. Six air tourists from Columbus, Ohio, were found fishing off Matanzas Wednesday, after being reported missing since early Monday.

The missionaries, on a tour of Cuba, Haiti, Jamaica, the Dominican Republic, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands, landed at Cuba's eastern tip after one of their planes made a forced landing. No one was injured.

Aiken Leads Senate Push To Block Rigid Supports

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24 (AP)—Opponents of rigid farm price supports tacked on to the new billion-dollar soil bank program opened a drive in the Senate today to chop them out.

Sen. Aiken (R-Vt), senior GOP member of the Agriculture Committee and a supporter of the administration's flexible and lower farm price props, led the attack.

BRING PROSPERITY

"High rigid supports never have brought prosperity to the American farmer and never will," Aiken told the Senate. "This line of reasoning is completely false."

He was on the losing side when the Democratic-controlled Agriculture Committee voted 8-7 to replace the present flexible supports with rigid props.

URGE OKAY

Chairman Ellender (D-La) and other advocates of the mandatory supports have been urging their adoption.

All parties to the farm bill battle concede this will be the key test when the final vote comes, perhaps late next week.

Aiken said he is confident the Senate will continue the flexible supports it first approved in 1954, when the Republicans were in command.

PRICE DROPS

As the price supports debate continued, a proposal to refund some 60 million dollars in federal gas taxes to farmers each year advanced a step. This proposal, affecting gasoline used only on farms, was recommended by President Eisenhower and Secretary of Agriculture Benson. It already has won approval of the House and today the Senate Finance Committee sent it on to the Senate with minor revisions.

Aiken, using charts and other data, contended that big boosts in farm prices since 1928 had resulted from war economics.

"Price supports and farm programs had nothing to do with it," he said.

WAR DEMAND

By continuing rigid supports after wartime demand ceased, Aiken said the government had piled up nearly 12 billion dollars in surplus commodities.

Most of this was invested in surplus cotton, wheat, tobacco and dairy products, he said, with a resulting oversupply of corn and other livestock feeds from diverted acres.

"The whole Midwest farm economy, which by rights should be stable today, has been disrupted by the effect of high rigid supports for the producers of other crops," he said.

Aiken said three groups now want rigid supports restored:

"First, those who sincerely believe that such a course will raise farm income.

"Second, those who are making a fortune out of the storage of government surpluses; and

"Third, those who want a completely regimented agriculture in America and know that their best chance of achieving this rests in maintaining enormous price-breaking surpluses in the hands of the government."

Red Party Group Raps 1-Man Rule

Maxim Saburov wrote in an article for the Soviet press. "Because of this, one million tons extra of fuel, in conventional terms, are consumed annually at high pressure electric stations alone."

This was the first high-level criticism of the ministry since Malenkov took over just a year ago, after he declared himself inept in the premiership and resigned. The article revived speculation about the future of Malenkov, who succeeded Stalin in 1953.

Malenkov already has spoken in the current 20th Soviet Communist party Congress. He went down the line for the policy laid down by party boss N. S. Khrushchev, including the concept of all-out priority for the development of heavy industry over consumer goods. Malenkov's name has been identified in the past with an attempt to give priority to consumer goods.

Although Malenkov sat with the ruling party Presidium during the Congress, and to all outward appearances remained a member of the "collective leadership," the criticism of his ministry by Saburov, head of the State Planning Commission, stirred curiosity concerning Malenkov's actual role at the moment.

The criticism came just as the party prepared to elect its new Central Committee, which is supposed to be the ruling body.

Until the Saburov article showed up, the only references to the electric-power industries at the Congress had been praise for plans to increase the construction of hydroelectric plants and to create power grids.

Dulles Sees West as Stouter, Forcing Kremlin To Revise 'Bankrupt' Strategy

stance, lay in collective rather than local security and most of all in the United States.

2. He disclosed that the United States might consider appealing to the United Nations to apply sanctions against the Soviet bloc if it persisted in sending arms to the Arabs and thus further inflaming a dangerous situation.

3. He asserted, however, that one of the greatest difficulties facing the United States in its role of attempted mediation between Arabs and Israeli was the belief of the Arab world that this country's approach would be guided by domestic political pressures.

4. He declared, moreover, there was danger Israel might in its frustration "precipitate what is called a preventive war."

If that should occur, he added, the United States would not be "involved on the side of Israel" because this country had commitments with its allies to oppose any nation that started "aggression" in that area.

The committee's questioning by agreement was confined largely to the position in the Near East, but Dulles testimony actually ranged over the whole field of foreign policy.

He rejected almost completely what has been the almost universally held notion of diplomatic quarters here that the West's position has been worsening and that of the Soviet Union strengthening.

He conceded that in "heavy industry" and in military preparation in general the Russians indeed were going forward strongly.

His argument in sum was that while the Russians were making great progress militarily and in heavy industry generally, they were in great trouble politically, in consumer industry and in agriculture and were being compelled to alter their whole approach to other nations.

Adenauer Expels 37 in Coalition, Wins Socialist Support for Arming

BONN, Germany, Feb. 24 (AP)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer tonight brought to a head a bitter nine-month quarrel with the Free Democratic party by expelling 37 of its rebellious members from his coalition government.

Dr. Thomas Dehler, leader of the Free Democrats, promptly called in a speech at Stuttgart tonight for "bargaining with the Russians for the price of German unity."

Dehler was cheered repeatedly as he accused Adenauer of lacking determination to achieve unification.

Adenauer exacted quick revenge for his defeat of last week at the hands of the Free Democrats. The Free Democrats helped the Socialists wrest North Rhine-Westphalia, West Germany's richest state, from Adenauer's control.

The 80 - year - old Chancellor, bounding back from that political drubbing, was able to expel the Free Democrats by nailing down the support of the powerful opposition Socialists for constitutional amendments legalizing rearmament.

Agreement with the Socialists insured a total of at least 402 votes in the 487 - member Bundestag (Lower House). This is far more than the necessary two-thirds for the amendments without help from the FDP.

The decision to expel the Free Democrats was made at a meeting of Adenauer's Christian Democratic party leaders. The action followed yesterday's dramatic FDP split which saw 16 of the 53 Free Democrats bolting to form a new pro-Adenauer party.

The 16 bolters, including Vice Chancellor Franz Bluecher and three other Cabinet members, assailed Dehler. He infuriated Adenauer by demanding a more independent West German foreign policy and direct talks with Moscow on German unity.

They also protested the FDP action in joining the Socialists to overthrow the Premier of North Rhine Westphalia, Karl Arnold, a top Adenauer lieutenant.

In announcing he would keep in his coalition only the 16 bolters, the Chancellor said he could not see how he could continue cooperation on the national level with a party that opposed him in a state.

Adenauer is expected to retain the four former FDP ministers in their Cabinet posts. The coalition will now be made up of three parties — the Chancellor's own strong CDU, the 16 FDP defectors and the rightist German Party, which has 15 parliamentary seats and two Cabinet posts.

Are All Laxatives Alike?

A Lot of People Think So but They Aren't.
Here are Some Interesting Things About Them:

1. Some laxatives act only on the large intestine, while others act on the small intestine.

2. If the large intestine is constipated and you take a laxative that acts principally on the small intestine the results will be incomplete and disappointing.

3. Likewise, if the trouble is in the small intestine and you take a laxative that acts only on the large intestine you cannot expect full and complete relief.

4. Most cases of constipation affect both the large and small intestines, so if your laxative acts on only one you are doing a half-way job.

5. Some laxatives contain carminatives that allay griping and nausea—others do not.

The foregoing explains why so many people get incomplete results when they take a laxative, and why they suffer from griping and nausea.

Thanks to Calotabs you can get in one pleasant, sugar-coated tablet a combination of laxative medicines that act on every inch of BOTH the LARGE and SMALL intestines. Calotabs also contain two of the most effective carminatives known to medical science. Therefore, Calotabs are thorough and dependable, and act without griping, nausea and other unpleasant effects. ## Editors Told Of Mixing Rise, Fight

By BILL HARRELL
Constitution State News Editor

ATHENS, Feb. 23—Spread of school integration in 17 Southern and border states and the fight against it in the Deep South were cited here Friday to the Georgia Press Institute.

Don Shoemaker, executive director of the Southern Education Reporting Service, said about 10 per cent of Negro students in the 17 states and the District of Columbia attend integrated schools or classes.

Shoemaker, who said the reporting service was set up with help of the Ford Foundation in Nashville, Tenn., added that the 256,000 Negro children comprising the 10 per cent are mostly in Southern states' border areas.

OPPOSITION

He said at least 46 opposition groups, with mass membership in the Deep South, are actively protesting the Supreme Court decision. Shoemaker reviewed the action taken by various state governments, including Georgia's, concerning the court ruling.

Since 1952, Shoemaker continued, ratio of Negro pupils to white pupils apparently has declined in 10 of the 17 states. The Negro population of the Southern region increased only about 1.5 per cent from 1940 to 1950, he added, while outside the South it increased some 56 per cent.

Southern Education Reporting Service publishes Southern School News.

James Saxon Childers, editor of The Atlanta Journal, presided at the luncheon.

The Atlanta Constitution Saturday morning will sponsor an address by Dr. Charles L. Allen, pastor of Grace Methodist Church in Atlanta and columnist for The Constitution.

Later, Dr. Allen will be principal guest at a luncheon for Press Institute guests, given by The Constitution.

Pye Expected To Get Judge Oath Tuesday

Durwood T. Pye, assistant Fulton County attorney, will be sworn in Tuesday morning by Gov. Griffin as one of two new Fulton Superior Court judges, informed sources said Friday.

The sources said friends of Pye, who is secretary of the Georgia Education Commission, had been notified at the county courthouse to be on hand at 10 a.m. Tuesday for the swearing-in ceremony.

Courthouse observers said the governor's appointee for the other newly authorized judgeship is not known and probably will not be announced until later.

Most mentioned as Griffin's choice for the other post are Fulton Civil Court Judge E. A. Wright, Fulton Criminal Court Judge Charles G. Bruce, and John Sammons Bell, state Democratic Party chairman. Most observers say, however, that Bell does not want the position.

Appointment of Judge Wright would leave a vacancy in Civil Court which some officials feel might be filled by Fulton Commissioner Thomas L. Camp.

In that event, Camp's post would be filled by an appointee picked by Commissioners James H. Aldredge and Archie Lindsey.

Slum Panel Called for New Drive

By HERMAN HANCOCK

Atlanta's nine-member slum clearance committee will meet in special session at 10:30 a.m. Saturday at the City Hall to launch a new and sustained drive for eradication of sub-standard dwellings.

Ald. John A. White, committee chairman, said he has called the meeting to "insure there is no let up in the slum clearance effort." He asserted many cities have slacked off in their efforts after a short, intensive effort, adding "the only way to effectively combat slums and their reappearance is to stay on the job constantly."

White said the following committee members have been invited to attend: Health Inspector Harold Dobbs, Sanitary Engineer Stafford W. Graydon, Building Inspector William R. Wofford, Planning Engineer Wyont Bean, Plumbing Inspector J. H. Schofield, City Attorney Jack C. Savage, Electrical Superintendent Dewey L. Johnson, and Asst. Fire Marshall J. S. Seagraves.

"We want to be sure that we maintain vigorous efforts to eradicate existing slums and to take all necessary measures to prevent future slums," White said. "We can not afford slums. They are economically unsound, breed crime and are unhealthy."

City Wives Patients

Mrs. William T. Knight, wife of veteran Ald. William T. Knight, is at Georgia Baptist Hospital. Mrs. Stafford W. Graydon, wife of Sanitary Engineer Stafford Graydon, returned to their home, 1800 Willis Mill Road, SW, Friday after an operation at Crawford Long Hospital.

Admires Incinerator

John W. Leake, sanitation director for Louisville, Friday inspected the Atlanta incinerator. Louisville has signed contracts with International Incinerator, Inc., for a 1,000-ton unit similar to Atlanta's costing nearly $4,000,000. The installation will be a rotary kiln unit, based on the Danish patent by Volund.

Firemasters Cancel

A scheduled meeting of the Atlanta Board of Firemasters Monday night has been postponed until March 26 unless an emergency arises. Board Chairman William T. Knight said little business was scheduled and decided to forego the session.

Search for Son Of Man Injured In Auto Crash

A relative of a critically injured man in Crisp County Hospital at Cordele Friday said she was trying to locate the man's son, last known to be in Atlanta.

The missing son was identified as Ronnie Brown, about 18, who lived recently at an Ormond street, SE, address. His father, Lind Morse Brown, 50, was injured critically in an automobile wreck Tuesday.

Mrs. George Bollinger of 630 Seminole Ave., NE, a first cousin of the injured man, is conducting the search for the son.

Given Pen Term, Freed on Bond

Robert E. (Bob) Stanley, 34, of a rural south Fulton County address, was freed Friday on $10,000 appeal bond after his attorneys filed a motion for a new trial on his conviction of receiving stolen goods.

Fulton Superior Judge Virlyn B. Moore granted the bond although officials of Sol. Gen. Paul Webb's office asked that Stanley be held without privilege of bond.

A hearing was set for March 22 on the new trial motion for Stanley, who was given a prison term of five to seven years Thursday in connection with furniture taken in a burglary Feb. 3, 1955.

Russell and George Tackle Big Tasks

Sen. George quite properly has called Secretary of State Dulles to give an accounting to the full Senate Foreign Relations Committee. The deterioration of the United States and free world positions in the world has become a matter of national concern.

This concern is not confined to political parties. It is a bipartisan matter and is the proper field for study by Sen. George's full committee. It is quite evident to all observers that United States policy is not geared to meet the new challenges of the Soviet Union in economic and psychological warfare.

It is all too evident, for instance, that there is indeed a crisis of leadership in the Western world. Churchill has faded from the scene and Eden's leadership is bound to suffer by comparison. France is paralyzed by political instability. President Eisenhower has been out of action for all intents and purposes since last August. As for Mr. Dulles, the facts speak for themselves.

The Communists have the initiative in Asia and Africa. They are forging ahead in the arms race. The West's position in Germany is steadily worsening. The Communists are taking the lead from us in political warfare.

It is time that somebody took stock of what is going on and attempted to set a new direction to meet changing Soviet policies. Mr. Dulles obviously has not been able to do so.

Another Georgian, Sen. Richard B. Russell, has announced a full investigation of the country's lagging aerial might and missiles program. The inquiry follows persistent and continued reports that the Reds are outdistancing us in both these fields and that the Pentagon policies are making the United States a second-rate air power.

Both our preparedness program and our bumbling foreign policy are proper spheres for congressional inquiry. The open challenges of Soviet leaders and the growing aggressiveness of the Communist movement must be met.

The nation looks to these two experienced and hardheaded Georgians, Russell and George, to put some life into foreign policy and military affairs. They are capable of doing these jobs.

Harris and Stanton Enrich Hall of Fame

Framed photographs of Joel Chandler Harris and Frank Stanton, respectively, a former editorial associate and a columnist of The Atlanta Constitution, today will be presented to Dean John Drewry of the Henry W. Grady School of Journalism for the school's Newspaper Hall of Fame.

There they will join other Georgia newspapermen previously selected, and await the addition of others in the years ahead.

Both men earned their places in the hearts and history of Georgia as much by their modesty and gentleness of character as by their ability to write. Stanton was the poet who touched the heart. Some of his poems, set to music, are as popular as when he wrote them. "Mighty Lak' a Rose" and "Just A-Wearyin' for You" are illustrations of his ability to sing his way into the hearts of a whole nation. Joel Chandler Harris attained international fame with his stories of "The Little Boy" listening to the tales told by a wise and kindly old plantation Negro—Uncle Remus.

Writers of today might take note of the fact that both men wrote simply, of simple, everyday things.

The Atlanta Constitution, with Henry Grady already in the Journalism School's Hall of Fame, takes added pride in the addition of these two—Stanton and Harris.

Rep. Roosevelt Proves Need for Statesmanship

In a speech at Augusta last weekend, Rep. James Roosevelt (R-Calif) called on President Eisenhower to "exercise the leadership necessary to halt extremists on both sides of the school segregation issue."

Mr. Roosevelt called for a halt to bitter "agitation as not in the best interests of the nation."

Coming from Mr. Roosevelt, often considered an "extremist" himself, these words have a special significance. They indicate a growing national recognition of the seriousness of the issues raised by the Supreme Court on schools and other segregation problems. They show, too, an awareness of the South's protests and that the problem is not exclusively Southern.

He pointed out the Powell Amendment to the federal aid to education proposal as an example of the "extremists' viewpoint." But, he said, "those of us from the kind of district I represent (Los Angeles) would feel impelled to vote for it even though we were not convinced it was the right move."

The latter statement illustrates all too well the need for statesmanship in dealing with this problem. To please his home constituents, would Rep. Roosevelt vote for something not in the national interest? Apparently he would. He would also shift responsibility for his actions to others—in this case to the President.

He and others who would deal so irresponsibly with a matter with such a potential for tragedy are inviting chaos. Unwise attempts to force rapid desegregation upon people unready and unwilling to accept it will solidify resistance and build up barriers that will be even more difficult of solution. The NAACP will be doing the Negro race a great disservice if it fails to understand that simple fact.

The same goes for politicians and leaders of both parties. To make this question a campaign issue in the coming elections would further divide the nation and would lead to such bitterness that rational approaches would become impossible.

Let Mr. Roosevelt and all other politicians think on these things before attempting to exploit an issue that would benefit nobody but which would greatly harm the nation.

Busy Youngsters Have No Time for Delinquency

At the conclusion of National Future Farmers of America Week it is fitting to pay tribute to this splendid organization and the work it is doing for young people. In the background, however, there lurks another story—the headlines about juvenile crime and delinquency.

During the week speakers have pointed out that there is less incidence of juvenile delinquency among rural youth. While this is true, crime records show that the increase in juvenile offenses in urban areas has been accompanied by a similar increase in rural sections.

But one sure preventive for delinquency among young people is that provided by FFA and 4-H Clubs. By providing other incentives, rewards and useful activities that are also fun, these movements are proving themselves in communities all over the land.

Young people whose energies are channelled into constructive, competitive projects have no time for delinquency. The rewards for achievement are substitutes for the excitement that less fortunate teen-agers also demand and find in such activities as we have seen in Atlanta recently.

We congratulate the Future Farmers of America and the Georgia members for their achievements in the last year. May they keep up the good work.

Shad, Like Jonquils, Are a Sign of Spring

One of the delights of the late winter and early spring is shad and its roe.

A native of the Atlantic, the shad is one of the gamest of game fish and most delicate of food fishes. It is admired by the sportsman and gourmet alike and brings a fancy price in fancy restaurants where often it is served without the many, many bones that detract from the joy of eating it campfire style.

The shad is an ocean fish that moves into fresh water to spawn at this time of year. The young shad generally remain in the rivers for their first summer and then go down to the sea and disappear.

The shad's life at sea is one of the unsolved mysteries of the marine world. So few have been caught in salt water that what they do, where they go and how they spend their time betwen spring visits to fresh water is a matter of speculation among marine biologists.

Georgia has no monopoly on shad, but the run in some of the state's rivers is famous enough to justify the use of their names on restaurant menus a thousand miles away to describe the excellence of the shad being served.

The shad runs from Florida to Canada, or from the St. John's to the St. Lawrence. It has been transplanted successfully to the Pacific, and now is an important commercial fish in the rivers of California.

The shad, alas, does not improve with civilization, industrialization, and the resultant effluvia. Old documents speak of the shad run up the Oconee as far as Athens, an area that has been shadless now for generations.

The shad still run, however, and in sufficient quantity to supply restaurants and markets with tender shad flesh and roe. Shad is as much a sign of spring as the early narcissus and there are those who will swear that it is even sweeter.

Why, Oh Why, Can't Parents Learn Streets Are Not Playgrounds for Their Children?

Decatur—I am a Marine stationed in a town that to me seems to neglect its children. I'm writing in regard to the children killed in Belvedere Park in Decatur.

I have no children but it tears my heart out every time a child darts out in front of my car. You can't blame the children. Parents do not realize that the smiling faces of their children can in a matter of seconds be changed into a lifeless, cold face of stone.

Children who are not old enough to walk, crawl around in the street. Why? Because the parents are too busy with their favorite television program.

Coming home from work the other day a boy stood in the middle of the street with his hands on his hips daring me to run over him. It wasn't his fault. He wasn't but four years old.

I realize that you can't watch them every minute but parents that stand in their yard and watch their kids play in the streets shouldn't be parents at all. Someone has to do something. Streets and highways are not playgrounds for children. If help is needed to keep parents from legally murdering their own children, I will gladly volunteer.

Adlai's Views Upheld On Segregation Issue

Atlanta — Right or wrong, a tradition which has been handed down from generation to generation for more than a hundred years cannot be nullified by the flourish of a pen. Whatever progress we may hope to achieve in the long hard pull of desegregation can only be accomplished gradually and in an atmosphere of reason and understanding between two races of people whose fortunes are at stake, as has been observed by Mr. Adlai Stevenson.

I think the great majority of the people of the two races would beyond doubt be sympathetic to views expressed by Mr. Stevenson.

His Mother Threw Ice Cream in Ocean

Atlanta—At the age of three I sailed with my parents to the United States. I made a game out of annoying my mother by twaddling with my food. I was repeatedly warned to eat my portion or I would not receive the dessert. Thinking that my mother would not go to the extreme I went on playing with the food.

To my total surprise my mother opened the porthole and threw the ice cream into the Atlantic.

From then on I have never doubted the determination of my mother nor shall I forget the ice cream lesson.

Why Isn't the Lobby Law Being Enforced in Georgia?

Every time the State Legislature meets, some member of that body makes a charge about lobbying activity.

This past week the charge came from Sen. Everett Millican in his annual bout with the loan operators.

If what Sen. Millican said is true—and he is not in the habit of making brash statements—our lawmaking branch of state government is indeed in a sad plight.

Mr. Millican said the small loan lobby has become "more powerful than the General Assembly."

The Fulton senator could be entirely correct.

The bald truth is that nobody—not even the Legislature itself—knows how powerful the various lobby influences are or who they are.

This is because the anti-lobbying law on Georgia's statute books is ignored openly and there is not the slightest semblance of enforcing it.

To a very large degree that is the fault of the Legislature because unless the lawmakers themselves who are pressured by the lobbyists insist the law be complied with, there will be no compliance.

There have been no registration of lobbyists since 1941, 15 years ago. This is in direct violation of the law which provides:

1. Lobbying is any personal solicitation of a member of the General Assembly, during a session, by private interview, or letter, or message or other means, not addressed solely to the judgment, to favor or oppose . . . any bill . . . by any person who misrepresents the nature of his interest in the matter, or who is employed for a consideration by a person or corporation interested in the passage or defeat of such a bill.

2. Every person employed to aid or oppose, directly or indirectly, the passage of bills shall, prior to any such service, file in the office of the secretary of state a statement, citing names of the persons or firms by whom they are paid and the subject matter of the legislation they seek to influence.

3. No person, firm, corporation or association shall retain an agent on the basis of paying him contingent to passage or defeat of a measure.

4. Within two months after adjournment of the Legislature, such agency which has sought to influence a bill file with the secretary of state an itemized statement showing in detail all expenses paid, incurred or promised, directly or indirectly, in connection with the legislative measure.

5. Failure to comply with the registration law is a misdemeanor.

Why isn't the lobbying law being enforced?

'Fats' Wants His Seat Back

ATHENS—Compton Otis "Fats" Baker literally is seeking a seat in the Georgia General Assembly.

"Fats," as you probably know, is the 400-pound plus Athens lawyer for whom the state bought a special chair. That was when the young man was a House member several years ago. When he vacated the position he also vacated the giant-sized chair.

Recently "Fats" bought the Dixie Hunt Building across from the Georgian Hotel in Athens. On the ground floor he fixed up an office suite, walnut-paneled and well-appointed.

When he investigated the price of a chair ample to accommodate his commodious frame, he learned that he would have to put out $800 for a new one. Now Mr. Baker is a canny one with a dollar.

Figuring that he might get that oversize seat, now surplus on Capitol Hill, at a second-hand price, he had a friend introduce a bill permitting the sale of this special piece of state property.

The bill died in the mimeograph room allegedly because one or two or three clerks have been sitting in the chair.

His local bill lost, "Fats" Baker announced as a candidate for the Assembly.

"I figure," says he, "they can use the chair part of the year and I'll use it the other part."

If he wins, the Baker chair will have to be moved across the legislative halls. The seat "Fats" seeks is in the Senate.

He has opposition — Julian H. Cox of Athens.

SHORT SUBJECTS: When Dr. Charles L. Allen, Constitution columnist and Methodist minister, speaks at the Press Institute today, he'll be following by a few years another whose name is the same—Dr. Charles L. Allen of the Medical School of Journalism, Northwestern University — When Gen. Stanley Guy Meloy, the Army's chief PIO officer, went to command Fort Benning a few years back he was 50 years old. Despite his age, he took the jump training and earned the airborne insignia. So did Gen. James "Bud" Harper, present commander at Benning. Gen. Harper is the man who translated to the Germans the historical "nuts" answer which Gen. McAuliffe gave to the Nazi surrender demand at Bastogne. The German emissary said, "This 'nuts'? What does it mean?" and "Bud" Harper replied, "It means go to hell." . . . "This is the age," said John Temple Graves, "when physics turns to metaphysics and mathematics touches God."

It's Easy to Revolt In Santarem, Brazil

I see by the papers where some character named Major Haroldo Veloso started a revolution in the city of Santarem, Brazil, and lost it. I almost started a revolution in Santarem once, myself. It's easy to do.

What happened was this: We had flown up the Amazon as far as Santarem, which is a little town of flat-roofed white-plastered houses, sitting on a low bluff on the north shore of the big river.

We had taken a little river boat there to go up the Tapajoz, a river about as wide as the Mississippi, which flows into the Amazon at Santarem. We'd traveled up the Tapajoz about 500 miles, me, a lady doctor, and her fiance, a broker from Rio, who didn't like the jungle.

But the lady doctor loved it; and at a little village way up the Tapajoz, she had bought a little jaguar, a jacarinda, I think she called it. Anyway, it was a little jungle cat, about twice the size of a domestic tomcat, and it had claws like fishhooks and teeth like needles. We stayed up the Tapajoz about a week, visiting little jungle villages, and then we came back to Santarem to catch the plane again. But the plane wasn't due there until the next day so we had to put up at the hotel. It was a little two-story building like an old Western hotel, and it didn't have beds in the rooms. It had hammocks, like the Indians sleep in, swinging from hooks in the corner. It was run by a lady and she wouldn't let the lady doctor sleep in the same room with her with the jacarinda. And the lady doctor's fiance wouldn't let the jacarinda sleep in the same room with him, for he was afraid of it, which meant I had to let the wildcat sleep with me.

Which it did. Except it didn't sleep. All night long it walked up and down my frame, while I was trying to get my rest in the hammock and every once in a while it would stop and gnaw on my ear, on my leg, or my arm, or somewhere. Which meant I did not get any sleep whatsoever.

Finally though, about daylight I dozed off and all of a sudden the darndest howling of dogs and barking of people, in Portuguese, broke out under my window. What happened was, this little wildcat had gotten tired of gnawing on me and had climbed up in the window to see what he could see. A dog, passing by, had observed the cat and it set him crazy. He started yapping and howling, and every dog in the Amazon Valley had heard him and come to join in the rukus. This had waked up the people who had come to see what the dogs were barking at.

So when I put my head out of the window, there was the street full of dogs, and people waving machetes and shouting.

And it took all the landlady's eloquence to disperse the mob, whose members seemed to be under the impression that some noted bandit or somebody was holed up in the hotel.

And that's about all that I remember about Santarem, a place so far off, so forlorn and so quiet that half the town will turn out to see a bunch of dogs bark at a cat.

Remembering the place, the only thing that puzzles me is why Maj. Haroldo Veloso wanted to seize it in the first place. And why, once it was seized the government didn't let him have it.

The Salvation Army Wins Noble Salute

Few organizations have as many friends or have created so much goodwill as the Salvation Army. A new book explains why this is true. The book is Soldiers Without Swords: A History of the Salvation Army in the United States. It has been written by the historian, Dr. Herbert A. Wisbey, and is published by the Macmillan Company.

The Army's "invasion" of this country was in 1880 when eight uniformed persons stepped down the gangplank at New York. They carried a crimson, blue and gold banner and they sang hymns. Their mission was the reclamation of the working-class people to whom the churches were not then ministering.

Members of the press corps poked fun at these strangers and their British accents. Their news stories described the women in the group as "English peasant women of very limited intelligence," "very plain, unattractive in appearance" and "wholly without grace or ease on the stage." Other newspapers, however, acclaimed their sincerity and devotion to Christ and all newsmen were aware of the fact that those hard-hearted days would benefit from the devoted efforts of a people who knew no ambition other than Christ-like endeavor.

They were offered the stage of a theater-saloon for their first engagement; they accepted the invitation. A friendly minister cautioned them that the place had one of the most disreputable reputations in the country. The leader of the Salvationists replied, "Then that's the place for us!"

The Army, over a period of 75 years, has established a reputation for selfless devotion of human needs and almost all of us can cite instances when we have seen evidences of their efforts, often in the least desirable of circumstances but always where the healing balm of their words, wisdom, work and witness was needed desperately.

Occasionally one hears the glib words of a popular song which at least indirectly mimics the manner and method of the Salvationist, or one hears some casual left-handed compliment. I doubt if such comments will ever hurt a people who have committed themselves to God and his people.

Yet, when a reader has read Soldiers Without Swords he feels deep down that he has felt the spirit of Christ, a reincarnation in our times of the Good Samaritan and he gets a new sense of appreciation of humanity: the goodness of the servant who loves his fellows and the new prospects of a seemingly lost individual who has been served.

Government Jobs Rank High in State

Georgia's third largest non-farming business continues to be government. If it were possible to divide our citizens, one might say that six and one-half of every 100 non-farm Georgians encountered are employes of some branch of government.

This can be stated another way—and it sounds like it should be. Let's say that slightly more than 15 per cent of Georgia's non-farm employment is in government—local, state, or national.

The largest segment of our non-farm working population is composed of manufacturing employment. This group is more than twice as large as the government group. In second place is the trade group. Then comes government employment.

Last year the average number of employes off the farm was 927,800. Of this number, 330,700 persons worked in manufacturing industries, 203,300 worked in retail or wholesale trade, and 143,500 worked for government. These totals, in order, are 25 per cent, 22 per cent and 15 per cent of the non-farm employes in the state.

The percentage of government employes has been fairly constant through the years. Looking back to 1939, one finds there were only 66,700 government employes then, or 13 per cent of the total non-farm work force of 512,200.

The Employment Security Agency of the Georgia Department of Labor has this to say about government employment in 1955:

"The level of employment in government averaged 143,800 workers in 1955. The 4,200 worker increase over 1954 was due to expansion in public schools, some departments of state and local government and in federal agencies. These more than offset the permanent closing of one large federal installation and reductions in force by other federal branches."

Only 24 per cent of Georgia's government employes work in the Atlanta metropolitan area—a surprising fact—and this group comprises only 11 per cent of the area's total 318,600 non-farm workers.

When it is considered that school teachers are employes of state government, the total of government employment as opposed to other segments of business isn't so stark. This school teacher segment also accounts in large part, no doubt, for the fact 40 per cent of Georgia's government employes are women.

Here are some oddities, however, concerning government employment:

There are more government employes in Georgia than there are persons engaged in manufacturing durable goods. There are nearly three times more people working for government than there are working in the construction business. The number of persons engaged in retail trade and the number working for government are practically the same.

Georgia's largest manufacturing industry is the textile industry. It averaged 106,700 employes last year, or 37,100 less than government.

These Are the Crackers

When 12,000 people came out to see the Atlanta Crackers play the last game of the '55 season, a new record in astonishment was established for Fulton County. Nobody could make any sense of it.

Earlier in the season, while they resided in the first division, clients stayed away by the thousands. In seventh place at the fag end, and going no place except home, 12,000 apparently sensible citizens show up at Ponce de Leon Park.

Bisher

Maybe they came to express thanks that they would not have to watch that group at work any more. Maybe they came to be able to tell their descendants that they saw Earl Mann's only seventh place club. Maybe they came to scout the prospects for '56.

This week, the Crackers' final official spring training roster arrived. It was a second effort, for the first printing developed into a typographical shutout. This issue comes printed in a folder the color of egg yolks. On the front is the small cut of a left-handed hitter belting a single to right center field. He looks slightly like Bill Terry, who often cursed bitterly that the Crackers never gave him a chance several decades ago.

Inside is the works, beginning with Mann and working down through the organization via vice president Jasper Donaldson, secretary John Stanton, concessions king Raoul Ovares, park superintendent Howard Hubbard, public relations director General William E. Brougher to manager Clyde King.

The roster itself throws not a great deal of light on the subject of what the Crackers will have this year. This is true because, while the Crackers are busy engaged in training personnel that will eventually catch trains for Jacksonville, Evansville and other assorted points, many of their fraternity brothers will be getting their basic work with Milwaukee and Wichita.

—Daniels Has Exciting Possibilities

That is not to say that isn't good. Who will not be impressed when it is announced that the Crackers are receiving a player gift from Milwaukee? All season long it will be possible to refer to him as a former major leaguer.

As for what we have among us on paper, only the outfield and the catching departments could conceivably open the season tomorrow. Dick Sinovic comes back from the outfield crew that finished in '55. Among those who started, Bob Montag, the all-time home run king, is returned from Austin (formerly Beaumont), where he hit .284 and drove in 56 runs. The Crackers have come into a Wichita (formerly Toledo) legacy of Jack Daniels and Jim Frey, neither spectacular but both always threatening stardom.

Daniels was a failure without remorse in Dixie Walker's camp of 1951 at Pensacola. Yet, unqualified to play in double A by a clash of personalities, Daniels pole-vaulted Atlanta to the Braves the next season. By letter he has promised King he'll be a 100-proof performer this season. He has the speed and the arm to give Ponce de Leon a Pete Whisenant-type job of center-fielding. He has the kind of power to shorten the right-field fence. He could become a hero before Independence Day.

Frey is the consistent spray-hitting kind. He assaulted American Association for only a .282 average, but there are several .300 seasons in his past, such as .316 at Jacksonville in '55. Not to mention 40 doubles that same year.

On the surface of averages, Paul Burris doesn't appear to be any catch as a catcher. He was only .167 at Toledo and at the age of 32 wouldn't appear to be picking up any steam. However, he has been an excellent receiver in the past. He needs only a fire built under his stern. Frank Sacka, provided he gives up retirement ideas at 30, is an established performer in this region. He has always hit well at Ponce de Leon.

The catching point is this, though: In neither of the past two seasons, even while crashing the Dixie Series barrier in '54, have the Crackers had exciting backstops. They start with a profit in '56.

—Dodgers Allowed Gabler To Escape

In the infield, they start with Bob Boring, Frank DiPrima and Sammy Meeks, all aged in AA. In spite of marketing efforts that failed, it appears they'll open with DiPrima at second, and who can apologize for a .309 average? This is the season that determines if Boring does or doesn't stay in baseball. He's 29. He has had his misfortunes. I play a hunch and suspect that he'll come out of the fog this season.

Meeks is a gamble, facing the afterside of an 11-year career. If he cares to play, he can be valuable, though it appears that he may have outgrown shortstop, throwing him into a battle of third base with Boring. Billy Porter is on the list, but apparently not meant for Atlanta this year.

Reports on rookie Bill Gabler, a first baseman of the Jim Gentile cut, are near to fantastic. However, Gabler is the kind of guy you believe when you see him. You can't overlook the fact that Brooklyn was willing to allow him to go unprotected on the Pueblo roster.

The pitching class has yet to register. Only Andy Bratkowitz, who should be able to win in this league, Tom Lakos, signed on for relief, and Glenn Thompson, who makes his pitch for the majors this season, come back. Bill Tosheff comes back from a lively season at Corpus Christi (19-6) for another chance. He should be a winner. Mack Roberson, 7-4 at Jacksonville, and Bob Hines, off pace at 2-4 with Macon, get spring encores. The rest of the pitchers are roster refugees out of the lower minors, all strangers.

The pitching comes up short, but the rest of the Cracker club has qualifications. It has age, maybe a little too much. It had a year ago this time. But this is a new spring and a new management, and part of the lure of it all is the watching, the waiting and the developing.

Kentucky, Alabama In SEC Climax Tilt

Full House at Montgomery To See Title Tiff Tonight

By LARRY FOX
Constitution Sports Writer

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Feb. 24—The date that was circled in gold back when the schedules were drawn has lost none of its luster and a full house of 10,000 will be on hand in the Alabama State Coliseum Saturday night for the basketball game between Alabama and Kentucky.

This is the climax game of a wild Southeastern Conference season and makes the predictions of the preseason seers come true. The tip-off is scheduled for 8 p.m. (CST).

Other games on the night's full SEC card send Tulane to Mississippi, LSU to Mississippi State, Vanderbilt to Florida, Georgia Tech to Georgia and Tennessee to Auburn.

Alabama, one of the hottest teams in the nation, must be rated a slight favorite in this big one, although a Kentucky victory would, of course, be no surprise. The Crimson Tide has won 12 straight games down the stretch and sits atop the SEC with a gaudy 10-0 record. The over-all record is 17-3.

Kentucky comes up with a 17-4 mark over-all and a 10-1 report card for SEC activities. Alabama has three to go after this one, Kentucky just two, all of them league affairs. Both teams will be heavily favored in their remaining games.

This is Johnny Dee's fourth campaign at the Alabama helm and the target season in his building project. How close the Tide is to the bull's-eye is a tribute to his success.

Alabama's only SEC championship came back in 1934, but the Tide is now in such position that even a loss to Kentucky would not leave it worse than an almost certain tie for the championship. Kentucky has won 16 SEC titles, including last year's crown, and needs a victory to stay in contention for even a tie.

Nationally, the eyes of the NCAA tournament committee will be on this contest. The SEC champion automatically gets a place in the national collegiate tournament. But Alabama's five starters are ineligible as four-year varsity performers. Kentucky can send its entire team up to the nationals while Vanderbilt,

Jordan Nips Murphy As Foul Furor Flares

Scorer Misses Anderson's 5th

By CHARLIE ROBERTS

The first all-Columbus State Class AA high school basketball tournament finals since 1944 was set up here Friday night with a first-class rhubarb accompanying victories by Baker over Richmond Academy, 69-56, and Jordan over Murphy High, 70-66.

A crowd of 3,000 watched Atlanta Murphy and Jordan engage in one of the most classic hardwood duels ever staged in the Constitution-sponsored event at the City Auditorium. And it was a pity that such a brilliant performance should end in bitterness born of what appears to have been an official's blunder.

There appears small doubt that Billy Anderson, the game's leading scorer with 20 points and Jordan's top rebounder and point man all year, fouled out of the game about mid-way the fourth quarter.

The official scorer's book had only four fouls on the 6-4 pivot man, who tallied six points in the final period, but all of the many other books along press row—including those kept by Columbus sports writers and radio men—had five fouls against him mid-way the fourth period when Murphy was leading by 63-58. As it was, he remained in the game, was a key factor in the victory.

Be that as it may, Jordan and Baker will tangle for the state crown Saturday night at 8:30 after Murphy and Richmond match baskets at 7 for third place.

Coach Bubba Ball's Baker Lions, who trailed the Augusta Musketeers by 14-10 and 25-22 at the first two-quarter marks, put on a brilliant second-half rally by hitting 60.9 per cent of their field shots. Even so, they were outfield-goaled, 23-21, and won at the foul line by hitting a sensational 27 of 30 charity chunks. Richmond managed to tag the nets with only 10 for 16.

Tommy Darrah, region 1-AA's leading scorer for the season; Gordon Darrah and floor-master Glenn Barnes hardly missed a shot, finishing the night with totals of 24, 19 and 18.

Richmond's Wayne Richards, the tourney's leading point-maker with 63 in three games, played with an ailing leg but led Frank Inman's Musketeers with 15. James Rogers and Frank Clark hit 12 and 11, mostly from beyond the foul ring.

There were dramatics in the Baker rally, of course, but the Murphy-Jordan duel was a classic of rare proportions. The lead changed hands on a whopping 23 occasions and the score was knotted a dozen times, the last time at 64-all with 1 minute, 15 seconds to go. Jordan never led by more than four points, Murphy by more than six.

Big Doug Hatcher (6-2) and bigger Milton McCree (6-4) of Murphy and Jordan's Anderson (6-4) and Herbie Slayden (6-3) were battling for rebounds like men possessed throughout. Murphy's sterling guard sparklers, Myron Moore and Norman King, were locked in floor battles with (6-2) Albert Whitehead and swift Homer Shellnut. Most of them were carrying heavy foul loads by mid-game.

Hatcher, playing perhaps his greatest game, led Murphy with 18 points. McCree had 14, Moore and King 12 and 10, even though both sat out long stretches because of the fouls against them. Both were fouled out in the fading stages. Anderson, Shellnut and Slayden looped home 20, 18 and 17 points.

But mere figures can't begin to tell the tenseness, the closeness of the battle. The count was stalemated at 17-17 at the first way station. Jordan was on top at intermission, 38-35. Murphy stormed ahead at the three-quarter mark, 58-54.

A few seconds later, Hatcher's close-in shot upped it to 63-58, Murphy. Finally, with three minutes left, Slayden found the hole open with the goal that made it 64-64. It was still that way with 1:25 left.

Shellnut stole the ball, raced

—FIFTH OF ARGUMENT—

Phelps: Murphy Lost To Foe, Not Scorer

Murphy's Mo Phelps didn't win Friday night, but he proved himself the best loser in the State AA basketball tournament, maybe in Georgia.

Despite the controversial "fifth foul" on Jordan's Billy Anderson that apparently escaped only the official scorer, Phelp's post-game comment was: "We just got outplayed. They outhustled us in the closing minutes. It wasn't our best game though."

As to the fifth foul, recorded by press, radio and other observers, Phelps said: "It might not have made any difference in the score." Anderson was a vital factor after the foul allegedly occurred in the fourth quarter.

Phelps singled out Myron Moore for the best job done by a Murphy player, and thought guard Homer Shellnut mighty sharp for Jordan.

Jordan's Herschel Jones, in victory, ran Phelps a close race for top sportsman. Coach Jones, whose Red Jackets joined the Eagles in one of the finest prep basketball games of any year, was justly proud of his team and complimentary of the enemy.

"We played our best. The boys played just as well as they could. I'm just glad to still be in the tournament," he smiled to a young lady, who wanted a forecast on the scrap with Baker.

"No predictions," he emphasized. "We've played them before and know how tough they are."

Shellnut and Herbie Slayden were the boys impressing their leader, while Moore and "that big center" (Milton McRee) were hailed on the opposing squad.

"Murphy's one of the finest teams we've played," Jones said.

Jordan played a great game in victory and credit can not be taken from the boys and coach because of an apparent official error.—LOGUE.

TOURNAMENT SHARPSHOOTERS—Following Friday's firing, the five top scorers were; Richmond Academy's Richards, 63; Baker's Tommy Darrah, 61; Jordan's Herbie Slayden, 56, and Murphy's Norman King and Milton McRee with 45 apiece.

MORE NOTES—Vance Rankin, North Fulton's star who performed brilliantly in the meet, is the son of Olney Rankin, who played on Boys High's State champions of 1923, Atlanta's first prep cage titlists. Dave Johnston, the elder Rankin's coach, too, has been a City Auditorium witness. . . . Among the Tech athletic corps on hand were assistant athletic director Tonto Coleman, baseball mentor Joe Pittard and football assistants Frank Broyles and Jack Griffin. . . . Luke Appling, ticketed for a spring with the Cardinals, turned out for the dribblefest also.

ATHENS, Ga., Feb. 24—Georgia Tech and Georgia, both looking for a finish with a flourish, close out their three-game season series at Woodruff Hall Saturday night and this time the Southeastern Conference chips are on the table. Game time is 8 p.m.

Georgia Tech has already clinched the series with two earlier victories over the Bulldogs but the Jackets' hopes of a first-division conference finish rest on this one. For Georgia it is a chance to escape from sole possession of last place.

Last season, the early non-counting games were split when Georgia came to Atlanta to win the big one in double overtime. This season, Georgia has the home floor advantage in the counting contest, but Tech still must rate a heavy favorite.

The Jackets were hard pressed to win here last week but came from way back to take an overtime decision, 72-68. They won the first meeting by a wide margin, 75-62.

Tech owns a 5-7 SEC record for seventh place and an 11-10 over-all mark. Georgia is a feeble 1-10 and 3-17.

This marks the last home game for Georgia but, in a boost for the Bulldogs' future hopes, only one senior will be in the starting line-up. He's Morris Dinwiddie, the little scrapper from Scottsville, Ky. The other starters are juniors Bill Ensley and Curtis Gleaton and sophomores Henry Cabaniss and Ray Allen.

Tech opens with seniors Bill Cohen, Joe Helms and Dick Lenholt and juniors Bobby Kimmel and Lenny Cohen.

Remaining on Georgia's schedule are road games against Kentucky, Florida and Florida State; while Tech has only a Monday finale at Florida.

Needles (And Light Rider) Rated 5-2 Favorite in Flamingo Stakes

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 24 (AP)—The 5-pound weight advantage allowed Florida-bred Needles may be worth $22,520 a pound in the Flamingo Stakes at Hialeah Park Saturday.

Needles gets into the mile and one-eighth feature under 117 pounds, against 122 for 15 other three-year-olds entered in the 27th running of the stake.

If all 16 start, the race will gross $149,800 and the winning owner will collect $112,600.

Horsemen agree that Needles belongs with this field of swift sophomores but many are quick to point out that his weight advantage may mean the difference at the end.

This concession comes through a rule adopted years ago by The Florida State racing commission to encourage thoroughbred breeding in the Sunshine State. The rule provides a five-pound weight allowance for Florida-breds in open competition, except in handicap races.

If Needles wins—and he is a 5-2 favorite in the morning line—horsemen are certain to demand that the rule be changed now that Florida-breds have gained some stature.

Needles already has earned more than $130,000 for his owners, Jackson Dudley and Bonnie Heath, and will be the second native son to run in the Flamingo. Donna's Ace finished seventh in a field of 11 back in 1947.

Second choice in the early line at 3-1 goes to Calumet Farms' entry of Liberty Sun and Fabius and to Maine Chance Farm's pair of Gun Shot and Busher's Idol.

Mrs. Anson A. Bigelow's Nail, last year's champion juvenile, is 4-1, with Fly-Ho Stable's Pete's Folly and Mrs. J. R. H. Thouron's Happy New Year at 12-1.

The forecast is for fair weather and a fast track with post time 5:20 p.m. (EST). The race will be televised and broadcast to a nationwide audience by NBC.

Berman Sets Shot Put Record at Raleigh

Special to The Constitution

RALEIGH, N.C., Feb. 24—Fred Berman, 250-pound Georgia Tech junior, tossed the 16-pound shot 52 feet 4¾ inches here Friday afternoon to establish a new Atlantic Coast Conference Games record.

Competing in non-conference division the big Marine Corps returnee, tossed it 52-4 in a preliminaries for a new mark and then came back in the finals to extend it ¾ inch. The old non-conference record was 50-8½ by Carl Shields of Alabama in 1952. The conference division standard was 51-1½ by Lawshe of Duke last year.

Willis of Florida grabbed second with a heave of 48-8½, while Georgia Tech's Carl Vereen, winner of the event the past two years was third with 48-5¼. Longton of Navy placed fourth with 47¾.

John Stembler Presents Luggage to Bulldog Fullback

ATHENS, Feb. 24—Frank Howard and Peahead Walker costarred in a comedy spectacular and Bobby Garrard and Roy Wilkins received William K. Jenkins awards at the Athens Touchdown Club's tenth annual jamboree Friday night at the Country Club.

Howard, head coach at Clemson, and Walker head coach of the Montreal Alouettes of the Canadian League, traded humorous insults that kept some 275 members and guests in stitches for more than an hour. They referred to their former friendly rivaldy, which sometimes wasn't so friendly, when Walker was at Wake Forest and an annual opponent of Howard.

Both paid tribute to Georgia head coach Wallace Butts as "one of America's finest football coaches," and predicted that the Bulldogs would be back at the top of the football threshold when adequate material is supplied by the alumni.

Butts, in a brief talk, thanked the Athens Touchdown Club for its support through the years.

Garrard,one of Georgia's finest fullbacks, became the first Bulldog player to repeat as the most valuable back. He received the same award a year ago. Wilkins, junior end, was honored as the most valuable lineman. However, Garrard had to accept both awards, for Wilkins was unable to attend due to the illness of his mother in Dalton.

in and sunk a snowbird to make it 66-64 as King fouled out trying to stop the shot with 46 seconds remaining. Anderson tipped one in with 30 seconds to go. McRee bagged a final one for Murphy, sandwiched around a couple of foul shots by Shellnut and the Red Jackets had won it. Then came the rhubarb, and it seemed everyone in the house except the official scorer knew Anderson had fouled out.

Baker's 1-AA kings, who have suffered two of their four losses at the hands of Jordan, 67-55 and 68-53, while beating the Jackets once, 57-55, gave little evidence of their great shooting ability until after the half. They hit just 7 of 21 shots, 33 per cent in the first half.

But, in a 28-point third quarter they stuffed in 14 of 23 for 60.9 and when they were done had smoked the rims for 21 of 44 tries, a 47.7 average. Richmond had many more shots because of great rebounding by Richards and Luther Shead, and they were true with a respectable 39 per cent, hitting 23 of 59 efforts.

Ball's Bakers, who won this meet in 1954 and finished third a year ago, went ahead at 28-27 and were never headed by the Augustans, who never have won a state basketball crown.

This first finals between two schools from one city since 1949, when Atlanta Roosevelt and Murphy battled in the last round, is expected to be played before a full house. The 8:30 starting time was set so that post-game trophy and all-star team presentations can be viewed on television. WSB-TV will pick up the finals only at 9 and follow it through to conclusion.

Awards will be made by Sam Burke, GHSA Executive Secretary, Sports Editor Furman Bisher and the writer.

Elberton Challenges Blackshear for Title

Appling, Jeff Davis Girls Meet Again in Class A Finals

By AL THOMY
Constitution Sports Writer

MACON, Feb. 24—It's almost the same old story, a fight for crown and glory, with Blackshear boys and Jeff Davis and Appling County girls featuring a four-star cast in the State Class A. High School finals in City Auditorium here Saturday night.

But there's a bright new star on the marquee, Elberton's poised and talented boys who have a 27-game winning streak going against what many consider the finest schoolboy unit in the state, Blackshear.

These four advanced impressively in Friday night's semifinals. To wit: Elberton, sending its shock troops back in after the reserves collapsed momentarily, stopped Thomasville, 59-53; Blackshear, gaining momentum in the second half after a virtual standstill in the first two quarters, beat Chamblee, 74-61; Jeff Davis girls had a battle on their hands before subduing Elberton, 66-57, and Appling County shocked Cartersville's lassies, 70-42.

Elberton is the hope of North Georgia, which last year saw all of its representatives unseated in the first round. The James Bettis-led Blue Devils manhandled Thomasville in the third quarter and Coach George McMillan gave his charges a rest. The reserves couldn't get organized, and before the regulars could get back in the Devils' lead had dwindled to four points.

But order was soon restored. Bettis led the Northerners' assault with 23 points.

Blackshear's smooth-functioning basketball machine methodically whipped down a fighting Chamblee club that just wouldn't quit. Eddie Grider and Jimmy O'Brien kept the Bulldogs close, but soon Don Bowen's great under-the-basket firing downed the gallant challengers. Bowen scored 32, O'Brien 23.

Shelvia Jean Johnson, a 6-4 sharpshooter, scored 48 points to lead Jeff Davis over battling Patsy Neal and her Elberton teammates. Patsy got 30. And Appling County, behind Eloise Turner's 45 points, had little trouble after a fairly close half.

Jeff Davis and Appling will be meeting for the fourth straight year in the finals, and Appling will be seeking its first victory. Last year Blackshear whipped Ocilla in the championship game.

Verdict Goes To Castellani

NEW YORK, Feb. 24 (AP)—Staggered in the second round, Rocky Castellani of Luzerne, Pa., came from behind tonight to earn a unanimous 10-round decision over rugged Johnny Sullivan of England in a nationally televised bout at Madison Square Garden. Castellani weighed 159, Sullivan 161.

The usually cautious Castellani, a 12-5 favorite, won by gambling on right hand leads, something smart fighters seldom do. He nailed the strong, 23-year-old Briton constantly with rights and that was the big difference between.

Referee Barney Felix and Judge Frank Forbes each voted for Castellani by 6-3-1 while Judge Bert Grant had Rocky in front, 6-4. The Associated Press had Castellani ahead, 6-3-1.

JORDAN COACHES SIGNAL, YELL FOR TIME OUT

Game's Frenzy Snares Sumpter Blackmon, Herschel Jones

"Give all the credit to the boys," Bubba Ball said after his blue-clad Baker basketeers swept past Richmond Academy into the finals of the State AA Basketball Tournament.

"They have listened and worked hard," Ball continued. And there was a trace of nothing but sincerity in his face as he directed the post-game praise to "all of 'em."

Where Jimmy Lee, Bobby Chaney and Foster Watkins had failed a year ago, their subs had succeeded. They had earned a place in the finals against neighborhood rival Jordan.

"Those boys practiced half an hour longer each day than the team last year," Ball continued.

"They've shown improvement, too.

"We played last year's team except for Tommy Darrah (only starter back from 1955), and we've given them a good ball game.

"No, I wasn't surprised that we came a good way," Ball said to a questioner. "But I am surprised we came this far. We were more or less just trotting tonight in the first half, but they all played a good game the last half."

This is the first Baker team, under Bubba's tutelage, to have four members with more than 200 points for a season's effort. Tommy Darrah, Gordon Darrah, Glenn Barnes and Lewis Casey are the quartet.

Surprisingly enough, this Baker edition with a 42 per cent showing from the field, was 2.6 per cent more accurate on field goal attempts than last year's squad. They're 3.9 per cent better from the foul line, with 74.0 per cent accuracy there.

Tommy Darrah's 82 per cent firing leads the free shot parade and 49 per cent field goal accuracy ties Barnes. Baker cashed in 27 of 30 free throws against Richmond Academy.

Ball wasn't forecasting the score for his team's scrap with Jordan, which has dropped the Lions twice before.

He did say: "I'm happy with getting to the finals. But I won't be satisfied unless we win the championship."

TOURNAMENT TALK—That towel Bubba Ball wears religiously during his Baker team's games isn't there through chance or superstition, but necessity. "The first year I coached I found the boys looking around for a towel every time out," Ball said. "So I started keeping one around my neck to keep them from wandering." It works. The Lions are always there when the strategy's being passed out. . . . Tech's basketball coach, Whack Hyder, at the half of the furious Murphy-Jordan struggle, gave either of the two an advantage over Baker. "Baker's strictly a 'team' outfit and a good one. But I think Murphy and Jordan have too much height and weight for them. Too, they've seen Baker's offense three times now and can defense it better."

Ex-Tech star Jim Nolan, who's doing a bang-up job tutoring the Jacket frosh cagers this year, calls Richmond Academy's Wayne Richards the "best college prospect" in the tournament. The 6-6 junior has just turned 16, was connecting with an "old-fashioned hook" despite a shoulder injury sustained against Northside. Nolan terms Murphy's little Myron Moore and Norman King one of the finest high school guard tandems he was seen this season. He rated King particularly tough on defense. . . . Georgia's Harbin (Red) Lawson is another college coach impressed with Richards' present and future as basketeer. "I'd sure like to see him join Allen at Georgia when he gets out of high school," Lawson smiled. Soph Ray Allen, another Richmond Academy product, has been a dead-eye shooter of late with Red's Bullodgs.

Brewton-Parker, Baldwin Do Battle for JC Title

Special to The Constitution

MACON, Feb. 24 — A foul toss by James Parker with only 27 seconds to go gave Abraham Baldwin a spine-tingling 77-76 victory over Georgia Military College's top-seeded Cadets in semifinals of the State Juniior College basketball championshiip at Porter gym Friday night.

Brewton-Parker's Blue Barons pulled away in the last two minutes to beat second-rated Young Harris, 82-75, and clinch the other berth in Saturday night's finals. The championship is scheduled for 9 o'clock. Young Harris and G. M. C. tangle in the consolation game at 7:30.

Parker was the big hero for ABAC, in addition to tossing the payoff point, he collected 21 points to lead his team's attack. Charles Markham flipped in 17, Aubrey Morris 15 and Gil Miller 14.

ABAC led 44-42 at halftime. The lead see-sawed throughout the game. W. L. Gray hit 25 for G. M. C., followed by mates Cay Ozburn 19 and Bobby Holder 21.

SEC CLIMAX

the third-place conference entry, loses two starters and a reserve.

If Kentucky wins Saturday, all discussion becomes academic. In case of a tie, the team holding a victory over the other in regular-season play is adjudged the tournament representative. And this is the only meeting between the two teams.

However, should Alabama win, it would likely step aside and that would throw Kentucky and Vandy, who split in their two games, into a quandary. These are the possibilities, but Adolph Rupp's Kentuckians can settle things in a hurry.

As stated, Alabama will start an all-senior team of forwards George Linn and Dennis O'Shea, center Jerry Harper and guards Dick Gunder and Leon Marlaire. Kentucky seniors are forwards Phil Grawemeyer and Jerry Bird and center Bob Burrow. The guards are junior Gerry Calvert and sophomore Vern Hatton. Kentucky averages 6-4 3/5 a man, Alabama 6-3 1/5.

Auburn can clinch at least a tie for fourth place by beating Tennessee in its 7:30 p.m. (CST) Sports Arena tussle. The Plainsmen are in the No. 4 spot now with a 7-4 record but can still be overtaken by fifth-place Mississippi State and Tennessee or tied by seventh-place Georgia Tech.

The Plainsmen, however, could conceivably move up and tie Vanderbilt for third if the Commodores lose their two remaining games against Florida and Auburn. Auburn, of course, must win all three of its encounters while Vandy, too, still has its sights on higher position.

TECHNICALITY 'SAVES' SUSPENDED ACC STARS

GREENSBORO, N.C., Feb. 24 (AP)—The confusion surrounding the hectic Atlantic Coast Conference basketball race today extended to the office of Commissioner Jim Weaver who suspended two players from further competition at noon and then had to lift the suspension until next week to comply with a conference rule.

Weaver first announced that Bob Cunningham, a University of North Carolina sophomore from New York City, and Wake Forest reserve Bill Tucker, a junior from Louisville, Ky., had been banned from further ACC competition for their part in a free-for-all fight following a Feb. 15 game between the teams at Chapel Hill.

Tonight he announced that the suspensions will not become effective until a complete report of Weaver's investigation arrives at the schools in the mail, presumably Monday morning.

Weaver had notified school officials by telegram of the suspensions. He was not aware at the time, he said, that league rules "require notification of such action 'by registered mail.' "

Kroll Knots Barber For Lead at Houston

Posts 67 for Total of 137, Stroke Margin After 36

HOUSTON, Tex., Feb. 24 (AP)—Ted Kroll, Fort Lauderdale, Fla., knocked a stroke off par on four straight holes today to post a late five-under-par 67 and tie little Jerry Barber for the lead at the halfway mark of the $30,000 Houston Open.

"I felt like I was cheating because I putted so well," Kroll said.

Ted Kroll

The 36-hole 137 by Kroll and Barber, the first-round leader, left them one stroke in front of hometown favorite Jimmy Demaret and Jon Gustin, a 23-year-old newcomer from Charlottesville, Virginia.

Barber dropped to a 70 today. Demaret and Gustin joined Kroll at 67.

Joe Jiminez, Midlothian, Ill., put a 70 beside his first-round 69 for 139. Trailing him by one stroke at 140 were Jimmy Clark, Laguna Beach, Calif., and Deen Wood, Liberty, Tex.

Cary Middlecoff, the strong pre-tournament favorite, was among the victims as the original field of 160 was cut to 90 pros and 10 amateurs for tomorrow's third round.

Middlecoff soared to an 80 yesterday but matched par 72 today for 152.

Tommy Bolt, another favorite, barely escaped the cutoff with 76-73—149.

Kroll started his streak of birdies on the eighth green and was four under par before taking a bogey 5 on the 475-yard 12th after his second shot was over the green.

He birdied the eighth with a 4-foot putt, hit a 20-footer on nine, a 15-footer on the 10th and an 11-footer on the 11th.

After losing a stroke on 12, he birdied 16 and 17 with 12-footers.

Barber ran his string of par and sub-par holes to 28 before running into trouble on the back nine. He missed a green and hit a sand trap on the 11th and 13th holes for his first bogey of the tournament.

Demaret hit birdie putts of 1, 4, 3, 3, 1 and 7 feet and chipped in from 12 feet for another. He three-putted the 11th and 14th for bogeys.

11 FOR 70

Hole-in-One King Sinks His 11th Ace

By BERT PRATHER

Clyde Spinks, Atlanta's champion hole-in-one golfer has done it again.

Clyde Spinks

Clyde, a retired businessman who plays East Lake four and five times a week when the weather is right, put the 11th notch on his "shooting iron" Friday afternoon when he slammed a a six iron home on the 146-yard 17th hole of the Lake's No. 2 course.

It was Clyde's seventh ace at East Lake. He's had five on No. 1 course and two on No. 2. His other four were made during his younger golfing days at West End Golf Club.

His 11th ace was the highlight of a birdie-ace-par finish that enabled him and partner Pat Campbell to nip foes Hal Denson and Sharpe Wall. Clyde's team was one-down at end of 15.

Spinks, who is 70 years young, confided that the ace ball had seen 90 holes of service. It is now retired and will be properly mounted by the manufacturer.

"I had about given up making another hole-in-one," Spinks said, "but this one has fired me up again. Who knows, maybe I'll make it an even dozen someday." And those who have seen this fine gentleman in action wouldn't bet you a nickel he doesn't turn the trick.

Sanders Takes Lead In GW Golf Tourney

By BILL McGROTHA

Special to The Constitution

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Feb. 24—Doug Sanders, the defending champion from Miami Beach, took undisputed lead in the annual George Washington Birthday golf tournament here Friday afternoon with a 36-hole total of 140 over windswept Tallahassee Country Club's par-72 layout.

Sanders, native of Cedartown, Ga., and current holder of Tam O'Shanter's All-American and World amateur titles, shot a second-round 36-35—71 to move into a three-stroke lead over Florida State's Edwin Jenkins.

Jenkins had matched Sanders' 69 Thursday to share the first-round lead, but slipped to a 74 Friday. This gave him a one-stroke bulge over third-placers Bobby Dunn and Art Butler, another pair of FSU swingers who stood at even par 144 for the 36 holes.

University of Florida's Dave Ragan was riding in fifth place with a 146.

Sanders' card Friday showed four birdies and three bogies. A fine putter, Doug knocked in 20-footers on the fourth and eleventh holes for birds.

SIX GREAT SUNDAY NIGHTS

8 o'Clock

Nearly two thousand years ago Jesus was born in an obscure little country. He lived in a tiny village until he was thirty years old. For three years He was a wandering preacher without a Church. When He died he had not many more than a hundred followers. Against the few who did believe in Him was unleashed the power of a ruthless world government. To be an open Christian meant persecution and often it meant death. Yet, the number of Christians steadily grew. Wars have come and gone, the world has undergone all sorts of change since He lived, thousands of teachers and preachers have lived in the world, both before He lived and since. Yet, today more than 600,000,000 people claim to be His followers. Christ is the most amazing figure of all time.

Beginning this Sunday night, February 26, Dr. Charles L. Allen will give a series of five sermons on the subject—

"LET ME MAKE YOU BETTER ACQUAINTED WITH CHRIST"

The large choir under the direction of Mr. Charles D. Beaschler will be singing beautiful special music at each service and leading the congregation in old Gospel hymns we love to sing. The choir will climax the series on Easter Sunday night with the singing of the Easter portion of Handel's Messiah.

Join with FOURTEEN HUNDRED other happy people in these friendly, informal Sunday NIGHT services. THE TIME of the service is 8 O'Clock. We cordially invite all who will to come. At each service special "CREATIVE THOUGHT CARDS" are given to use during the following week.

Be First To Offer Forgiveness

QUESTION: My neighbor and I have not spoken for 10 years. At that time he cursed me and said I was a liar. I am now willing to forgive him. Should he not come to me and ask to be forgiven? I want to get along with everyone.—W. L.

ANSWER: If this is so, then you should take the initiative and go to him. Jesus once said: "If thou bring thy gift to the altar and there remember that thy brother hath ought against thee; leave there thy gift; first be reconciled to thy brother and then come and offer thy gift."

Christians are noted for their willingness to forgive. Jesus said from the cross: "Father, forgive them for, they know not what they do." When Stephen, the first martyr died, he said: "Lord, lay not this sin to their charge."

If you have experienced the forgiveness of Christ, you will then be willing to forgive others, and you will even take the initiative in seeking them to make right that which is wrong. I am sure you will be blessed if you do this.

A Rhyme a Day

"Ladies, what does your mirror tell you? Be honest, now. Don't you really think you need this fine complexion cream?"—Radio commercial.

Before you know it, time will pass . . . and you will hate the looking-glass . . . for looking-glasses tell the truth . . . they "cast reflections" on your youth . . . or, as we say, they "get you told" . . . and what they say is, "you grow old."

I wish it were not true, because . . . I have observed some minor flaws . . . in my complexion, and my hair . . . has left a lot of spaces bare . . . and, in some places, I'm too fat . . . the mirror tells me all of that.

I wish (and maybe I'm a crank) . . . those fellows would not be so frank . . . they always seem to single out . . . some failing they can talk about . . . our thinning hair, our wrinkled skins . . . protruding hips and double chins . . . the way we look, the way we smell . . . and some fine day, I hope to tell . . . one of these laughing lads that he . . . smells just about as bad to me.

KEEP WELL

Dr. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

H. Y. writes: Can anything be done to heal blisters faster, like pricking them to let out the blood?

Sticking a needle into a blood blister is not recommended because of the danger of infection. Germs thrive on blood and so long as the lesion remains closed, there is no possible way for them to enter.

C. D. writes: Do ringarounds on the fingers come from filth?

No. Bacterial invasion of the nail bed may occur from injury such as biting the nails or a hangnail. Our leaflet on Paronychia describes this condition. It may be obtained by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope with request.

F. L. writes: Why is it that when I tighten a shoestring on one shoe more than the other one, the other foot isn't satisfied?

This has me baffled, too, but you might be able to solve the problem by not letting the right foot know what the left foot is doing.

C. M. writes: What is the best treatment for warts?

The one that gets rid of them. Our leaflet on warts, which may be obtained by sending a stamped self-addressed envelope with request, discusses the various treatments available.

W. L. writes: The other night I awakened and, on lifting my head from the pillow, felt as if I were going to black out. The next day the doctor examined my ears and said I had accumulated wax. After he washed it out, I felt fine. Now I'm curious to know how ear wax could cause a feeling of faintness.

Pressure of the wax on the eardrum is thought to be responsible for dizziness.

C. T. writes: My health is good considering my age (past 80) but I have to gape every night before I retire, in the morning when I awaken, and during the day. I get plenty of sleep. Is there something wrong?

No, as yawning is normal. Occasionally the yawning reflex is stimulated by the need for more oxygen. With this exception, there is nothing significant about the symptom, so why not forget it?

Student Leaders Honored

Lister Skinner

Katherine Hatton

Katherine Hatton, 117 Mortimer St., SE, and Lister Skinner, 2180 Azalea Cir., Decatur, have been chosen this week's Top Teens.

Katherine, a junior at Hoke Smith High School, was nominated by the Smith chapter, Future Homemakers of America, of which she is president. During her sophomore year Katherine attained the State Homemakers Degree, highest award by the FHA.

She is a member of the Inter-Club Council, Public Relations Club, Legislators, Junior Civitan and the Beta Club. She has been a member of the Smith High band for three years and plays first clarinet.

ON SENATOR STAFF

A staff member of the Senator, Smith's All-American newspaper, Katherine is Atlanta correspondent for the teen-age page in a national magazine.

She has accumulated 21 A's since the beginning of the 9th grade and has grades lower than A for only three semesters.

Katherine, who has a part-time job, is secretary of the young people's department of the South Side Baptist Church, where she is also secretary of the Baptist Training Union.

"We feel that Katherine is a credit to all teen-agers and should be recognized as such," wrote the vice president of Smith's FHA organization.

Her home economics teacher, Miss Mary Elizabeth Allen, said: "I heartily endorse Katherine as an outstanding teen and a credit to our community."

"FAITHFUL MEMBER"

Dr. T. B. Thrailkill, pastor of the South Side Baptist Church, said Katherine is "an honored and faithful member of our church."

Lister, a senior at Druid Hills High School, has been president of his home room for four years. Last year he was president of the junior class and is now president of his senior class.

Captain of the Druid Hills High football team and president of the Hi-Y Club, he is also head of the Black Letter Club.

Miss Cecil Jackson, one of his teachers, wrote: "Lister takes an active part in church activities, possessing high morals and strong convictions."

Mrs. Claude Huey, another of his teachers, wrote that Lister is "clean-cut, neat, forthright and good-natured. His integrity is unquestioned and his leadership ability is remarkable."

TV PROGRAM

As Top Teens of the week, Lister and Katherine will appear on a special television program over WAGA-TV at 11 a.m. Saturday, and will be introduced during the Celebrity Playhouse presentation over WSB-TV Sunday at 2 p.m.

Recognizing the Top Teens of the week is a project of the Atlanta chapter, American Women in Radio and Television.

A spokesman for the sponsoring organization pointed out that the selection is not confined to teen-agers in Atlanta. Top Teens may be nominated by any youth group near enough to Atlanta to make the trip here for the telecasts each week.

Top Teens are selected by members of Atlanta's Teen Board. This week's judging panel included Rodney Brannon, Fulton; Charlotte Mitchell, Druid Hills, and Duncan Briggs, Northside.

A Young, Beautiful Throatline--

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Let's face it. Middle age would be a more beautiful time of life if the throat muscles would keep a firmer grip on youth. But how to keep tone in the muscles that hold that fragile line is the problem.

There are only two measures that counteract gravity and help to keep the throatline young—erect head carriage and bracing tone in the throat muscles.

SURFACE MEASURES

The "full treatment" for a young and beautiful throatline includes optimum amounts of the protective foods daily in order to properly nourish the tissues. Any measure which stimulates the circulation in this area is all to the good. Splashing on hot and cold water is helpful. Beauty creams lubricate the skin and discourage wrinkles. But these surface measures aren't in it with exercise for restoring tone to flabby muscles.

Here's the routine: First, massage in cream, working from the base of the throat upwards to the tip of the chin and out towards the ears. Follow with this exercise—make it a habit.

Before you get out of bed in the morning, slip the pillow down under your shoulders and touch the back of head to bed. Very slowly, lift head to straight line, hold for a second, and lower. Repeat three to six times.

RESISTANCE EXERCISE

Before retiring, do this resistance exercise. Rest chin on heel of hand, chin level. Resisting with hand, slowly lower chin. Then, resisting with throat muscles, push upward with hand until chin is level. Relax and repeat two or three times.

The rule for improving your head carriage is to get the habit of pulling up strongly with that line at the back of the neck.

'New Look' for School

By BETTY CARROLLTON

A new look is in sight for West Fulton High School.

Students who have been busy enough to make a bee blush by comparison are about to see their fund-raising efforts pay off.

The Student Council, headed by Sandra Dixon, is sponsoring a project to build circular benches around the trees in the school and to take advantage of pretty spring weather and provide facilities for that happiest of all recesses—outdoor eating.

Plans for the benches are being drawn by Richard Curlee, who reports his work is nearing completion and actual construction of the benches should begin next week.

MIRRORS

The Student Council is also planning to install full-length mirrors in the two girls' dressing rooms on the first floor of the school. Later, they plan to install mirrors in all the dressing rooms.

Jerry Coursey is vice president of the Student Council, Jimmy Webb is secretary, and Charlene Williams is treasurer.

The Senior Cabinet, composed of senior class officers and a representative from each home room, plans to wallpaper the entrance hall and corridor leading to the office.

Barbara Sizemore is president of the senior class. Other class officers include Ted Snyder, vice president; Ellen Howard, secretary, and Delores Clement, treasurer.

MOVIE PROJECTOR

West Fulton's eighth grade students have presented to the school a new 16-mm. film projector, the result of their fund-raising efforts during the year.

Funds for all these projects were derived by sales of doughnuts, swap-cards, and special events, including a bluejean dance, girls' football game and a beauty contest.

Fulton Royalty

A new royal couple, Jerry Burrell and Beth Lites, have been crowned king and queen to reign over the "castle" of Fulton High School.

The coronation was held in the school auditorium, which had been decorated to represent a 16th Century castle.

Peggy McWhorter acted as mistress of ceremonies and told the fairy tale of Donna, the retiring queen, who crowned the new royal couple.

The court included runners-up Dan Campbell and Delores Smith; Mark Ingram and Betty Burch; Roy Yeager and Janice Cowan, and James Maddox and Esther Thurman.

A dance at the school gym followed the coronation.

Superlatives

The Westminster Chimes, student newspaper, has announced the selection of four senior superlatives of the School for Girls.

Peggy Ann Lloyd was chosen to represent "nobility." Peggy is president of her class and held the office of president of her eighth grade, sophomore and junior classes.

Joyce Calhoun was honored for her athletic ability and sportsmanship. A member of Westminster's varsity basketball team, her record has been outstanding. She recently was named best all-around member of the team.

Toni Wien was chosen for "ability," and the "service" award went to Tallulah Reed. Both are members of the National Honor Society, Pi Sigma Kappa honorary society and Quill and Scroll. Toni is editor of the Chimes, and Tallulah serves as news editor.

These four young women will be featured in the school yearbook to be published in the spring.

Key Club Officers

Jack Beasley has been elected president of the Southwest DeKalb chapter of the Key Club.

Other officers elected to serve during the next school year include Bert Westbrook, vice president; Jere Houseworth, secretary; Mike White, treasurer, and Bill Reynolds, sergeant-at-arms.

Blind Man Didn't Know Gift Was First Lady's

By BERNICE CALHOUN
Constitution State News Service

THOMASVILLE, Feb. 24—A smartly dressed woman was about to cross Broad street here when she saw a blind man with a cane walking along the sidewalk.

Mamie Eisenhower hesitated, went back, got some coins from her bag which she dropped into the blind man's cup, and spoke to him.

A few minutes later some Thomasville women, who had seen the incident, told the blind man that it was the First Lady of the land who had spoken to him and given him the coins.

"I didn't know who it was, but she had a mighty soft, sweet voice," the blind man said. He walked on down the street, beaming.

While the President has been playing golf and hunting, Mrs. Eisenhower has been enjoying a rest in the peaceful quiet of Milestone Plantation, where they are the guests of Treasury Secretary and Mrs. Humphrey.

SHOPPING TRIP

On their only shopping trip in Thomasville Mrs. Eisenhower and Mrs. Humphrey arrived in town unannounced, entered Steyerman's department store and went immediately to the dress department.

The First Lady asked to see "something with a cool neckline for summer, in size 14." She took her time and was completely at ease even trying on some of the new shaped summer hats which were most becoming on her.

Mrs. Julia Hicks Smith waited on Mrs. Eisenhower and Mrs. Humphrey in the department store. She said the President's wife selected nine dresses and Mrs. Humphrey one to take to the plantation on approval.

They had not returned any of them Friday. They were cool summer dresses, with low-cut necklines and straight skirts in pastel cottons, linens and print silks.

COMPLIMENTS STOCK

Mrs. Eisenhower complimented Mrs. Hicks on the store's stock of dresses and met several of Mrs. Humphrey's friends and acquaintances, including Lawrence Steyerman, one of the store owners, and Bill Thomas, a druggist.

At Mrs. Humphrey's request, Steyerman went across Jackson street to Neel Brothers department store to get Miss Julia Davenport and bring her over to meet Mrs. Eisenhower.

Miss Davenport, 75, who has been with Neel Brothers for 58 years, described Mamie as "just as sweet and cordial and everything a President's wife ought to be."

Mrs. Eisenhower asked to meet the decorator in the store who had, a month ago, redecorated the cottage which the Eisenhowers are occupying at Milestone.

The First Lady looked trim in a black and white print dress with red linen duster, a black velvet pillbox hat, black shoes and gloves, and one of Thomasville's famous camellias.

GIFT FOR HOSTESS

At the gift shop owned by Mrs. Hull Searcy, another of Mrs. Humphrey's friends, Mamie bought a sun dial as a present for her hostess for use of the terrace at Milestone. She also bought several English bone dishes of various colors.

A Thomasville woman was at the golf course watching the President when she was told that Mrs. Eisenhower had been downtown shopping.

"Oh, my gracious, I can't be two places at one time," she exclaimed.

Mrs. Eisenhower, Mrs. John S. Doud, Mrs. Eisenhower's mother, and Mrs. Humphrey spent their time playing scrabble and canasta and driving around the beautiful piney woods on the plantation's dirt roads.

Though Mrs. Eisenhower refused numerous invitations in an effort to get some rest while in Thomasville, Mrs. Bolling Jones Jr. of Atlanta and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Bolling Jones III of Thomasville, completed a foursome to play Bolivia with the First Lady and her hostess.

Mrs. Jones Jr. knew the Eisenhowers before they went to live in the White House, having dined with them in Paris while traveling on the continent with her sister, Mrs. Robert W. Woodruff, Mr. Woodruff, and Mr. Jones. President Eisenhower was at that time head of NATO.

Army Terms Caffey Talk Injudicious

The Army announced a finding Friday that Maj. Gen. Eugene Caffey, its judge advocate general, was "injudicious" but violated no law or regulation in publicly praising a Georgia congressman's speech favoring racial segregation.

The Army said its inquiry showed that Caffey's "exact words were ambiguous and susceptible to an inference that he was endorsing views favorable to racial segregation."

However, it said Caffey's remarks were solely intended "as a complimentary reference to the speaking ability of a third party" . . . and it was "determined that while his remarks were injudicious there was no violation of law or regulation for which punitive action would be appropriate."

Caffey, who is a native of Decatur, in a Jan. 30 address to the General Assembly, alluded to an earlier address to the Georgia lawmakers by Congressman Flynt (D-Ga). Caffey then said:

"If I were going to make a speech I would hope to make one like that."

Market Notches 5th Straight Rise

New 1956 High Only $1.60 Short of Sept. 23 Record

By RADER WINGET

NEW YORK, Feb. 24 (AP)—The stock market today advanced to a new high mark for the present year in its fifth straight rise. It currently is near its record high established last Sept. 23.

The advance was moderate but all divisions were favored by good plus signs. Gains frequently ranged from 1 to 2 points and some were larger. There was a fair share of minus signs, but they weren't concentrated.

The market's present advance has been ascribed to Wall Street hopes that President Eisenhower will run again.

Prices were higher at the start with trading fast enough to force the tape to lag as much as two minutes in reporting transactions. The congestion was brief.

Although the rise never was extensive, it held around its best until late in the day. A final flurry of trading helped to boost the daily total of transactions but didn't change the price picture much.

Associated Press average of 60 stocks was up $1 at $179.90. The record high is $181.50. Industrial component of the average was up $1.80, railroads 60 cents and utilities 20 cents.

The list was composed of 1,199 individual issues, of which 653 were higher and 294 lower, with 56 new highs and six new lows.

American Stock Exchange was higher on volume of 920,000 shares as compared with 890,000 yesterday.

Stock Market Seat Sells for $100,000

NEW YORK, Feb. 24 (AP)—For the first time since the crest of the bull market of 1937, a seat on the New York Stock Exchange has been sold for $100,000, it was announced today.

It was the highest price since $106,000 was paid on April 27, 1937.

Although still hovering below its best levels since President Eisenhower's heart attack Sept. 24, the stock market has shown bursts of renewed confidence lately.

10-Mi. Chase Nabs Youth On 15 Counts

A 19-year-old Decatur youth who police said admitted "that was crazy," Friday was arrested on 15 traffic violation counts following a 10-mile chase.

Officers said the youth, Ronald L. Little, of 3706 LaVista Rd., Decatur, eventually was halted at a police blockade on Glen Iris Drive, NE.

Little is scheduled to appear in Traffic Court at 2 p.m. Monday to answer charges of speeding 75 m.p.m. in a 25-mile zone, eight improper turns, improper lights, improper muffler, over-running a red light and two stop signs and driving on the wrong side of the street.

Ptl. F. E. Kennedy and T. L. Raborn said they first attempted to halt the car on Glen Iris drive at North avenue because of a loud muffler.

They said the youth sped away, racing down North avenue, Angier avenue, Dallas street, Wilmer street, Rankin street, Arnold street and several others before his path was blocked by a second patrol car.

After the arrest, he was quoted as saying, "That was crazy, wasn't it?"

Wheat, Corn, Oats Decline

CHICAGO, Feb. 24 (AP)—In a mixed market wheat, corn and oats ended lower on the Board of Trade today. Rye and most soybean futures wound up with small gains, largely as a result of a timid rally in the last hour. Dealings were moderately active but not as much so as earlier in the week.

Profit-taking was noted throughout the market and this was enough to keep most futures under the previous close from the start.

Nickels Go in a Flash; Buffalo Shed No Light

He kept his collection of the coins in the flashlight.

Youth, 19, Fleeing Auto Crash Here Is Fined $1,000

Declaring that "this wild driving must be stopped," Traffic Judge Charles Wofford Friday assessed fines totaling $1,000 against a youth in connection with an auto crash on Peachtree street.

As an alternative to paying the fines, Wofford said Willie L. Beach, 19, Negro of 330 Bowen Cir., SW, could serve 120 days in the city prison farm.

The judge also ordered Beach's driving license suspended for five years.

Ptl. R. N. Hagan and S. S. Howle said Beach was charged with over-running a red light at Peachtree and Baker streets and striking an auto operated by William S. Howland of 295 W. Wesley Rd., NW.

Beach left the scene of the mishap Thursday, officers said, but was apprehended a short distance away.

Wofford pointed out Beach had been bound over in December to Fulton Criminal Court on charges of drunk driving, carrying concealed weapons and carrying a pistol without a license.

War II GI Bill Nears Deadline on Training

Algerian Rebel Tracts Threaten Long, Hard War

ALGIERS, Algeria, Feb. 24 (AP)—Nationalist rebels circulated tracts today claiming they were preparing for a long, tough war to force the French into a defeat as serious as Dien Bien Phu in Indochina.

The tracts were circulated following renewed rebel attacks that French officers admit are becoming more skillful. The pattern of the 16-month-old insurrection is changing, they say.

The tracts were signed by the National Liberation Front, unofficially regarded as representing the rebel organization, and the body to negotiate with "when the conditions for a cease-fire are fulfilled."

Late Advance Eases Cotton

NEW YORK, Feb. 24 (AP)—Cotton futures rallied briskly in late dealings today and closed 5 cents a bale lower to 35 cents higher. Only nearby May showed a decline.

Trade buying and short covering found offerings limited. The market at one time was off as much as $1.15 a bale, with a good deal of liquidating and hedging in evidence.

Evening up operations in nearby March futures slowed considerably. The March open interest at the start today was only 84,300 bales. There were no March transferable notices issued.

Soldier Home Plea for State Is Lost Again

Georgia again has lost her plea for a half-million dollars federal aid for "soldiers' homes."

State Veterans Service Director Pete Wheeler and others had appealed for federal grants to veterans who are receiving treatment at Milledgeville State Mental Hospital and Battey Tubercular Hospital. Portions of these two hospitals had been designated as "soldiers homes."

U.S. Compt. Gen. Joseph Campbell announced in Washington Friday that he had affirmed a ruling of last October denying aid to Georgia and West Virginia.

The comptroller said Georgia's facilities are "not primarily domiciliary homes but rather institutions furnishing hospital care." A "home" is an institution where the veteran would be furnished shelter, food, clothing and incidental medical care, he said.

While Georgia contended that a "truly domiciliary home might be established," Campbell said there is no contention that Georgia has established one.
